

I heard the Spirit of God say, And now you're moving. You're moving up into the edge of big things. You're moving into the realm of where you should have been all the time. But you see these are the last days and the enemy goes about as never before and he knows his time is short so you're going to have to move in a hurry. I don't have time for you to wait. You're going to have to move in a hurry. You said I've been waiting on God. No. I've been waiting on you. You're not waiting on me. I've been waiting on you. Waiting on you to make up your mind that you are going to go on saith God. So you're about to move into the big things in the realm of the spirit where you have not been before in the realm of the spirit where the anointing of God will flow as free as the water in the river. Where you will operate in the anointing of God as freely as a bird flying through the air. Keep on moving. Look back. Think about those times that the Spirit of God moved upon you and the Spirit of God spoke unto you. Realize and understand the things that you did at that time to bring you into that place and do it again and you shall find that the anointing is the same. It's been there all the time. It has not been in manifestation but the potential of it has been there all the time for God's power and His Spirit are everywhere present and so faith will put it to work. But you have been afraid to move out by faith. You've been motivated too much by what you see and what you hear so your physical senses has held your spirit as a prisoner. And your spirit instead of operating in the realm of the spirit and operating in the full measure of the Spirit of God that is within you; your spirit has been like a child locked up in a closet. Open the door. Step out. Victory belongs to you and to everyone. Move on saith the Lord, for in these last days, it shall come to pass that they that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits..... And many who sit here today shall have remembered what was said and they shall say, well I knew that ahead of time because the Spirit of God said so and all shall rejoice and be glad.... It's time to rejoice, time to move forward, time to use your faith, time to declare his glory. Let's do it..Yes you'll be glad. It hasn't been so good but it will be so good and you'll rejoice and be glad. You'll be glad, glad, glad.
