

April 28, 1983 : Dr. Kenneth Hagin

Do you want to know what the Spirit is saying? I'll tell you what the Spirit is saying. In this move that's about to come and you're even in the edge of it right now. It will not altogether be something new that you have not seen. It will be a combination of everything put together and then plus a little bit more. In this move of God that is just about to spring upon you, there will be a manifestation of casting out demons that you have not seen yet. Some have drawn back from casting out demons and the Spirit of God said, I began to move along those lines a few years ago and men avoided the move. They mixed some of their own thinking and they tried to control it and do it according to a pattern or according to this way that we thought it should be done, but you haven't seen anything yet of what you're going to see in dealing with demons for demons are let loose upon the earth. They are going about as never before, because they know their time is short and so in this multiplication, this advance of demon activity, there will be the advance of the Holy Ghost. Demons that have held ministries in check and that have harassed men will leave and you have not seen yet what you will see in the area of dealing with demons, exercising authority over demons, and we are about to step into it like you stepped through a door into another room, and secondly saith the Spirit of God you have not seen the revival of divine healing that you are about to see. Oh yes, you saw those that I raised up. You've seen men and women mightily used of My Spirit. I sent them forth as a pilot program to try to train you and many just looked at them and lifted them up and some of them became lifted up in pride and some of them became money-minded and lost the anointing, but there will arise a group in this day, a brand new breed. They'll not be greedy of filthy lucre. They'll not be wanting to attract attention unto themselves. They would care less whether God uses me. They'd rather God would use you and He will not just use ministries. He will use laymen and there will be a revival of divine healing such as you have not seen in your lifetime or read about or even heard about, saith the Lord.

And a revival of the supernatural, not only the supernatural in casting out devils, not only the supernatural in healing the sick, not only the supernatural in speaking with other tongues, but the supernatural in the realm of the seen realm. Men will see the glory of God. A cloud will hang over certain congregations and a cloud will hang over a church building for days at a time and everybody that passes by, sinner and saint alike will say "Well what in the world is that, I've never seen anything like that. Ha Ha Ha" And there will be in other places fire of the Spirit that will actually become literal. Oh yes in the spirit realm some have seen it, in the spirit realm we've been conscious of the fire of God, but the fire of God will actually come into manifestation and there will be people sinner and saint alike will see fire all over the heads of the people. There will be people driving down the street or the highway and they will see fire on top of the buildings and they'll come and say, "what does this mean?" But you see the Lord will use signs of His presence to bring people in the last days to the fullness of His Spirit and into salvation. Signs. Signs. What kind of signs? Miraculous things in the realm of the spirit and then they will be manifested in the realm of the natural and the glory of God will fall and the power of God will be in manifestation and men and women too will even be transported like Phillip was and found in another place and great, great shall be the reward thereof for the Lord is the same God today as He was yesterday. His power has not diminished and His name is still the same. Today He can make the iron axehead to float, today He can divide the water just for two men to cross over on the other side. Today He can feed the 50000 with a little boy's-lunch. He is the same miracle-working God. Bragg on Him. Lift Him up. Draw attention to Him. Talk about how great He is. Rise up in faith and talk about what great things He is going to do and He will move and keep His word with you and many shall be astonished, but the greatest miracle of all is that there will be so many fish caught in the net that the nets can't hold them. There won't be church buildings large enough to hold all the people. Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen, For the purpose of it all is that you would be fishers of men. Halleluah! Stop fishing in your own bathtub, there aren't any fish in your own bathtub. Go out where the fishes are and throw out the net and pull them in and the glory of the Lord will shine and the end-time shall come and you will stand in the place of ministry that you have not stood in before. You'll stand in the place of ministry that's been ordained for you from the foundation of the world. And if it were to be, if it could be told you, if we were able to tell you in human language what will transpire in some of your lives and some of our lives who are here just now, your mind would not be able to comprehend. As you say speaking in the natural vernacular, it would almost blow your mind. But you'll see it, you'll rejoice in it, you'll be glad of it. It's just out there a little way ahead of you. Be faithful. Be joyous and rejoice in the Lord always and He will bring it to pass. That is what the Spirit of God is saying.

Many shall go and tell the story and His great glory show. The power of God in manifestation shall be the gifts of His Spirit. The manifestation of His Spirit in the full potential shall come. The ministry gifts; the apostle and prophet, the evangelist and pastor and teacher too shall flow as one, and we as one; one body, in one spirit shall go forth to conquer and to do His deeds and great shall be the reward thereof.

Being conscious of a mighty move in your spirit, wanting and desiring to do the will of God; but don't try to do it yourself. Just learn to relax and flow with the Spirit. Don't try to figure it out with your head, "what does He want me to do?" Just learn to relax and flow with the Spirit. It will take care of itself. You don't have to worry; "I know there is something He wants me to do." Fine. Keep on praying and flow with the Spirit. You'll not step into the full potential of what God has for you tomorrow. You'll not come into the full potential of what God has for next week, or next year or even a period of time. But as you are faithful and as you are trained and learn to yield yourself, you'll move eventually into that place that He had for you all along. But you see, moving into that place of ministry or whatever pulpit or personal ministry, or whatever your place is in the body of Christ- moving into that place is fueled by prayer, fired by the Spirit, and ignited with His glory!
