

Psalm entitled Impossible

Impossible with man from the natural standpoint but not impossible with God. Everyone surely and freely believes, for they have read with God all things are possible and so it's comparatively easy to believe. For He is God and He is almighty and He is all sufficient and He is beyond all, so with Him all things are possible. But forget not that it is also written in the Holy Word of God that all things are possible to him that believeth.

So step out ahead of the crowd. Step out in faith, believe and receive. Step out in faith and do exploits for the Lord your God. For with God all things are possible and all things are possible to him that believeth. So then, nothing is impossible with God and really nothing is impossible with you. Rise up in faith, declare it so! Declare it's done even before you can see or even the victory seems won. Declare it is true because you see, you have the Word and it's so dear to you. Declare that all He has said He will surely do, for He's not a man that he should lie.

Has He promised it and shall He not do it? Did He say it and shall He not bring it to pass?

Oh, it's easy to trust in Him and His ability for we know His power shall forever last. But it's not so easy to trust in ourselves or to believe in me, for I'm acquainted with my mistakes and faults and shortcomings too.

But you see, faith has nothing to do with the frailty of man or the flesh or even the mortal attitude. But faith is of the heart, of the spirit, and the spirit is of God.

So forget what your feeble mind might say and look not at the physical senses and wait they unto you relay, but rather trust in Him with all thine heart and He shall make His Word good in you. It shall at last and you'll be so happy for you'll find that the burden of his health and rest and trial is over at last.

Yes, has the Lord spoken and shall He not do it? Did He say it and shall He not bring it to pass?

Oh, you said, when He called you to the ministry and called you to it this work and called you to do that work, "That's impossible. That's impossible. I could never do that." But He furnishes the Spirit and He furnishes the power and He gives you His Word and His promise very simple now. You need not look though you look into the future and raise a alarmise of the future. You're supposed to look at the past and say, Oh, no, no, no, no, I could never give in that time of day. But do that which it seems that He has called out if you'll let Him only unto me and step out in faith, Yes, saith the Lord of Hosts, It will all come to pass at last. Your heart shall rejoice and your spirit shall be glad and you'll be able to say 'The Lord is from everlasting to everlasting and He never fails and I will walk with Him and walk in love. So I fail not for love never faileth.'

Victory psalm

Trouble and trial, trouble and trial, tests too come to all who walk down here. They come because of the fall, because Adam, man sinned and opened the door to satan and all of his kin. But you see, you need not be overcome with trouble and trial and tests. You need not be overcome with sickness and disease. You need not be overcome with poverty and all the rest, for you see, He has come to redeem us from all that satan has brought, so that we can rise above the crowd and shout with a voice that is loud "The Lord has done it and not we ourselves. We've only walked in the light of His victory. We only stand in the law of His love. We only walk in the light of His Word. We only do that which He bids us do."

And so you see, the enemy has no hold on you. For a defeated foe he is today, yesterday and tomorrow too. For Christ redeemed you, yea, He redeemed us all from the curse of the fall. He redeemed us from the wicked one, so that his hand no longer upon us prevail. But translated us into the kingdom of His Son where we all shall enjoy that which He hath bought. Yea, rejoice and be glad for the Lord has said it, believe it and it shall be so.

Talk about your trials, magnify your tests and talk about how sick I am and how the enemy has held me in bondage and troubles and trials and tests and sickness too, will last and last and last.

But lift up your voice and declare with a shout, the Lord has redeemed me because you see I know what it's all about. For the revelation of His Word has come and light has shined in my spirit down here below so I rise up in faith and shout "Away you must go!" And instead of those things lasting and lasting and lasting and defeating you, but, you'll rise up in victory and shout and shout and laugh and laugh and laugh and enjoy your victory.
