

Kenneth Hagin September 17, 1987
at Ed Dufresne Building Dedication Tulsa, OK

Father, we're so grateful and thankful for all of Your blessings. Thank you for this time of dedication that we come to dedicate this building and this property unto You for Your use, for the plan and purpose of God to be consummated, the work of God to be done in these days in which we live. We thank you, our Father, for all that has transpired. We thank you for that which is about to break upon us. We thank you, our Father, for your goodness and mercy, for Thou hast been good and Thou art merciful and Thy goodness and mercy is eternal from everlasting to everlasting. And we thank you for Your plan and Your purpose. For You planned even before the foundation of the world, for it is written that Christ is as a Lamb slain before the foundation of the world. And Your plan has been consummated to this moment, and yet there is more to the plan, and so we're open unto You and to Your Spirit and we consecrate and dedicate ourselves, all of us and all the ministers, those who are set in the Body of Christ, we consecrate and dedicate ourselves anew and afresh to carry out Your plan, that Your will and purpose shall be consummated in each of our lives and of our ministries. The work of God shall be wrought in these last days and we give ourselves unto Thee and pray afresh and anew, dear Father. That which we know not, teach Thou us, that which we see not, show Thou us. Prepare Thou us for that which Thou has prepared for us. And in these last days 'ere the Lord shall come the work of God shall be done, the plan of God shall be revealed, and our hearts shall rejoice and be glad. We thank you, our Father, because Thou art preparing the Body of Christ, the real Body, not the church world that knows not Christ, but is wrapped up in their own plans, pursuing their own purposes, religious minded but empty on the inside. On the outside, many, garnished with many noble acts and rightful deeds, but on the inside, black and dirty and mean. But there is a body of believers called out, washed in the Blood, cleansed, separated from the world, untouched by that which is human, endowed and endued with divine authority and power and glory and they shall march as one, joining hands in these days to proclaim the fulness of the revelation of the Father revealed in the Son. And so the love of God shall be made manifest in our midst. And the glory of God shall be seen by many and there shall come in this hour and to that place where the full restoration of all in the Body of Christ shall be restored. And there are those that will stand in their place, ah, they've stood temporarily, momentarily, occasionally in that office, in that place of ministry, but they'll stand there solidly and boldly to declare that which the Lord is saying, to declare that which they see, for this is the hour when the seer shall be restored unto the Church and those that'll stand in the office of prophet will no longer be snubbed and looked down upon, and because some have made shipwreck of that office, yet others will realize the reality and see the truth of the fulness of God's revelation. And the seers shall stand on the horizon of time, and see into the realm of eternity and see that which God has planned and know His purposes. Standing on the horizon of time, he shall look back into the realm of time and see that which the enemy has planned. Yea, yea, yea, yea, yea, saith the Lord of Hosts, this is the time of restoration, this is the time of visitation, this is the time of fresh renewing and outpouring. And so the visitation of the Lord in these days shall be greater than it was yesterday. And the manifestation of His power and glory shall be one hundred fold more than it was yesterday. Yea, the glory of the God shall be seen upon the face of many. And many, without a word spoken, just looking upon the face of the man of God, shall fall down in repentance and cry out unto God. And even those who are not in those offices set in the Church, but are members of that Body, enhanced by the Spirit, on fire and maintaining the glow, without saying a word men and women in the world shall look upon their face and fall down and say, "I don't know what makes me do this." Yea, the power of God shall be in manifestation and thy heart shall be rejoicing, and thou shalt be glad and the work of God shall be consummated. And many things that have been spoken, even unto men of God who sit in this place tonight, and though that was spoken unto their hearts, they shook their heads and said, "Oh, that can not be so." And the word of God by the Spirit coming into the hearts of women of God who sit in this place and they declared from their head, human reasoning and thinking, "that is impossible, that can not be so." But yea, saith the Lord of Hosts, remember that all things are possible to him that believeth, and with Me all things are possible and the impossible shall become the possible. And even many have said, "Well, it is possible, but it is not probable", yea, even the improbable shall come into manifestation. And your heart shall be made to rejoice and your spirit shall be glad and the work of God shall be enhanced and the kingdom of God shall be advanced. And sitting upon the horizon of time, and looking not only into the realm of the spirit and seeing that which transpires in the spirit realm, for the enemy goeth about as never before knowing that his time is short, but thou shalt know, and thou shalt share, and those who know how to pray will rise up in this hour and intercede and the forces of darkness shall be driven back and the evil spirits and the powers of the enemy that encrouch upon the things of God and the people of God shall be driven back, and so it is that the Church shall stand tall in this hour and stand big in this hour and rejoice in His power. And looking into the realm of time, yea, I looked, I looked, I looked, and I saw the hearts of men and oh, they were disturbed and perplexed, and I saw a black, dark cloud rise up from the eastern part of our nation, it came out of the capital of our nation and men responded unto that darkness that arose and walked with it. And that darkness began to envelop this very land, but oh, oh, oh, the hearts of many that know God sensed in their spirits, and those of us who stand on the horizon of time shall sound forth the word of warning. And so there shall arise the mighty ones, those called of God, separated unto Him, and they shall make intercession. And the light shall shine and drive back the darkness and evil and wicked men shall fall. And there'll be those that remember it was told you in advance, it was told you two years in advance, there'll be those in high places who will fall down dead and some would say, "Oh, I don't understand, oh they would have made such a great leader, I can not understand." But those who know the voice of the Spirit shall rejoice and be glad for ye shall know that the darkness has been stayed and the hand of the enemy has been defeated. And the work of God that is to be consummated in those few short years to come will be consummated, and the word of God shall be done, and there shall be those who will come and stand, stalwart and strong, around those who are persecuted for the kingdom's sake, and they shall stand as one man, and they shall stand and having done all to stand, stand. And so the work shall be consummated. And that work that is to be done in this hour and that visitation of the Spirit and that revival that's about to burst upon you shall surely come to pass. And many, many, many, many, as the world would say, hordes, of people, shall be swept into the kingdom. And even in places upon this earth of seemingly uttermost darkness, the light shall shine in and men and women shall rise up and exercise the authority that's theirs on this earth. For if two of you shall agree on earth, in any nation, in any land, regardless of the government, regardless of the opposition, regardless of the darkness. If two of you on earth, in North America?, yes, in South America?, yes, in Central America?, yes, in Asia?, yes, in Europe?, yes, in Australia?, yes, behind the iron curtain?, yes. If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything they ask, it shall be done for them of My Father which is in heaven. Remember there is nothing in the third heaven, in paradise, that needs to be bound, but remember in the first heaven just above the earth where the demons and the evil spirits are ruling whole nations, they must be bound. And whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven. And those spirits that dominate whole nations, spirits that dominate certain quarters of this earth shall be bound. And the light will shine, and the Holy Ghost shall be poured out, and the revival will come. And the hearts and lives of men and women shall be blessed and whole nations shall be changed and you shall enter into a new day, a new age. Not a new age as man thinks upon it, but you shall see there shall be in manifestation at the end of this age, a portion, a measure, of the power and glory that shall be manifested in the age to come and you approach that time. For these are the times of refreshing from the hand of the Lord, from the presence of the Lord, the time of giving from the hand of the Lord, and the time of manifestation by the Holy Ghost and the glory of the Lord. So rejoice and be glad, let not your hearts be sad, and neither be ye pessimistic, but rather look forward to the future with optimism, gladness and joy, for the light has shined and the glory is revealed. Thank you Lord Jesus. Praise His Holy Name forever.

If it could be told that which will transpire in the future, some of it in the immediate future, and when I say immediate future I mean the next few months. I'm just repeating what I'm hearing the Lord say. Not only that which shall be manifested in the immediate future, but that which shall be manifested in the future. And again when I use the word future I'm referring to '88, '89, '90 and even into '91. If that could be revealed unto thee, that which will transpire, 99 and 99/100% of all ministers, men of God and people of God in this place would shake their head and say, "I, I, I, don't see how that. . . I can't believe that." But you see it does not all come at once, but line upon line and precept upon precept, here a little and there a little, before you know it, you're flowing in the flow. Glory to God, and you're set on the word "go". And it shall surely come, for the Lord is witness unto many, even as the apostle Paul declared that, "I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem not knowing the things that shall befall me there, save that the Spirit witnesseth in every city that bonds and afflictions abide me." And so the witness of the Spirit has been there in your heart, it has been witnessed by an inward witness, it has been witnessed through the gift of prophecy, tongues, interpretation, and been witnessed in a variety of ways. But then Agabus the prophet came on the scene and said, "Thus saith the Holy Ghost, the man that owneth this girdle shall be bound hand and foot by the Jews in Jerusalem and delivered unto the Gentiles", and so the Lord is bearing witness, not only bearing witness, but He is emphasizing and He is speaking forth that which the Holy Ghost is saying. Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, there shall be great cause for rejoicing, there shall be great cause for rejoicing. And you to whom the Lord has spoken, and you to whom the Lord has witnessed and is now speaking in a more form and bold way, should begin to laugh, laugh in the face of the enemy, chuckle, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, . . . . .

