Father thank You tonight. Oh, Father. Oh, yes. Oh my, my, my, my, my, I wish I could tell them. How can I do it? I wish I could tell them. I wish there was some way I could convey that to them. Oh my, my, my, my. Yes, Lord I see that. I know that. Oh, oh, oh, oh. Oh, God help us! Help us! Help us! Yes, I know that these are just the beginnings. These are the beginnings. Satan knows some things that's the reason he's moving in these false prophets, false apostles, false church governments because he's endeavoring to stymie the real move of God that's coming. He can't do it. He can't do it. Light drives away the darkness. The light of God's Word the entrance of His Word gives light and we are children of light. We refuse to be dominated by the enemy in any way, shape, form or fashion and the will of God and the work of God and the plan of God and the Kingdom of God shall be made manifest this hour and in this day. And the Holy Spirit filling the temple, the church which is the temple of the living God as those individual members of that body take their place humbly and worship, truly He'll manifest Himself in such a great measure of power that this generation has not seen and we'll be glad and we'll rejoice in Him. Oh, Master, divine Savior of mine, help us. Help us. Oh, dear Father God, help those dear church members in this room tonight that are practicing sin which grieve the Spirit of God whereby they are sealed unto the day of redemption. Oh that they may turn to you and with that sinning business. Oh, God may they know that judgment is about to fall upon them and that though healing and long life belongs to them that they can forfeit their right to that healing and forfeit their right to that long life by persisting in sin and wrong doing. Speak to those dear church members. Oh, Lord. Oh, Lord. Oh, Lord that they will lay aside every weight and the sin which does do easily beset them and run the race with patience set before them. Oh, God my Father. Oh, my Father, my God. Oh, my God. Oh, my God that black cloud, my God, that hangs over this city. Cause it to be blown away by the winds of the Spirit. Oh, cause it to be blown away by the winds of the Spirit. That black cloud of false prophet. that black cloud of man entering in to an office that he's not called to and using machination of man to deceive people. Confusion and darkness creeping in. Let the light shine. Let the winds of the Spirit blow. Blow away the cloud. Oh yea, oh yea, oh yea, oh yea, the cloud will dissipate and disappear. The sunshine of His love and mercy will shine forth. Oh my, my, my, my, my. My, my, my, my. Oh, yes, oh yes. Yes the plan of God shall be consummated and the work of God shall go forward. Oh yes, the hand of the enemy will be stayed. Yes and the ideas of men will be squelched. and false teachings and doctrines will dissipate and disappear for the light will drive out the darkness. the truth of God's Word shall prevail and men will not follow after the cunning craftiness of man whereby they lay in wait to deceive but they will grow up into Him a mature Christian. Walking in the light, singing and rejoicing in His power and might. Refusing to be disillusioned by the enemy and refusing to obey the call of man but rather respond unto the call of God. so, the work of God shall go forward and the plan of God shall be consummated. Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes and we will praise You and give to You glory and honor for it all in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

Kenneth Hagin Winter Bible Seminar 1989

Don't draw back, don't draw back, don't draw back, don't draw back! The time is near, the time is at hand. No longer can you wait; no longer can you procrastinate. No longer can you say, "yea, in another day I'll consecrate. In a later day, I will wait on the Lord more. In another day, I will spend more time with Him. In another day, I will put my flesh under."

No longer, no longer. Don't draw back and don't pull back.

The Spirit of the Lord pleads with you. Come forward, more forward. Answer the call you hear in your heart. Respond unto the Spirit of God. It is not bad, it is good. It is not bad, it is good.

The price that would be paid in the flesh is nothing compared to the glory which shall be revealed. It is not bad. Do not dread it. Do not draw back from it.

It is a lie. It's a deception that has held you back. It's a lie. It's a deception that has caused you to draw back. Go on in. Taste and see that the Lord is good.

Oh the treasures of the things He has laid up for you. The things that your heart is hungry for. Nothing else will satisfy your soul. Nothing else will give you the answer in your heart. Nothing else will make you feel complete. Nothing else will satisfy what you seek. Nothing else! Nothing else! Nothing! Nothing!

Oh, push in. Respond unto the Spirit of God. Just lay those other things aside. Lay those things aside. Humble the pride and fall before Him and wait upon Him. And as you do, your soul will blossom. Your spirit will spring forth. Yea, you will be a greater blessing unto your spouse. You'll be a greater blessing unto your family because you will bloom forth. And you won't be restricted like before. And you won't be vexed like before. And you won't be hindered like before.

Yea, you've done some things for them. You've drawn back and you said it was for them. But you have not been a blessing to them in that the full blessing of the Lord was not upon thee.

But if you shall press in though, it might seem to cost that price in the beginning, it might seem like it costs you. It might seem like it costs them. Yea, but that's the only way to get to the things that they desire and the things that you desire and the things that are needed. Yea, the things that must be in this hour, it cannot be delayed. It cannot be delayed. It cannot be delayed. It must be now. Now, now is the time. Now is the time! Now is the time.

So heed the call of the Spirit's cry in your heart. Don't say, "I'll do it by and by." But the time is now. Do not dread or fear. It is good. Taste and see that the Lord is good.

Don't think it's too high a price. It's nothing in comparison to the light and the glory that shall be revealed. Draw nigh unto him. He shall draw nigh unto thee. Seek His face. He shall reveal Himself unto thee even in a greater way. And you shall rise up and you shall be enabled to be a far greater blessing. And your later end shall exceed and it shall overflow and it shall be abundant in blessing and glory and grace.

And the evil one that thought you to deter and thought to lie to you and keep you from it, you shall look at him and you shall say, "Ha ha ha ha ha ha.....

"Your plan did not work ha ha ha ha ha
"It did not succeed ha ha ha ha ha ha
"I did not believe it ha ha ha ha ha ha
"I obeyed ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
"I ran my course ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
"I finished my job ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha"

And those things that once held you, those things that for years, years, years deceived you and held you out; you shall look at them in triumph. You shall look at them from that higher place. And they shall seem nothing to thee. They shall seem small and despised in your eyes. You shall look upon them in dismay and you shall say, "Ha ha ha ha ha ha ..." You shall see far ha ha ha ha And you shall know well, and you shall move sure, and shaken shall be hell. And their power shall be confused for His authority you've used. And that which they greatly feared shall have happened.

For they feared, they feared that the revelation of truth would come into the earth. They feared that it would come through the heavenly host that would withstand it. They feared that someone would stand. They feared that someone would seek. They feared that someone would penetrate. Because when the revelation comes, the truth doth set the captives free. And that which they have greatly feared, it shall even come to pass. It'll come to pass. It'll come to pass. It'll come to pass. It shall come to pass. It shall come to pass.

God shall reveal His truth unto His people. Yea, we've rejoiced in the light. And we've seen a little bit. And we moved, but oh, there's so much more. There's so much more. There's so much more.

And the enemy would have us just revel in what we see and what we know and not push and penetrate to hold fast to receive more. But it shall not be for a glimpse we do see. And we shall not be satisfied until the truth in our hearts abides.

We shall not draw back and we shall not fear until we have it all that God would give year by year. Increasing glory to glory, light to light. Not doing it in the flesh but by the good faith fight.

And His plan shall be accomplished and His ways shall be straight. And then it shall be ready. He shall come. He'll not be late. And His people shall have done His bidding and His people shall have heard His voice. And His Spirit shall have reaped the harvest through the church and His people shall rejoice.

He calleth thee higher. He calleth thee higher. Continue to look down on lowly things on the ground but look up and see what he has reserved for thee. And by faith, let your heart reach out and grasp and let his spirit lift you up. Then at last you shall see what your eyes have longed to see. You shall sense what your heart has craved, hungered to sense. You shall know what your mind has hungered to know. You shall do what you were created to do.

Camp Meeting, July 26, 195
Thursday Night
Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin

The hour has come, the day of blessing and favor and restoration has come, saith the Lord of Hosts. The day of crisis has come, but also the day of division has come. For there are those who will not submit unto the Word of God for they go off after the doctrines of men and build strange doctrines on isolated text and make more out of one sentence in a verse rather than accepting the whole word of God on the particular subject. There are those that will rise up and, to defend themselves, they will fight others. Now you mark my word and listen and remember you heard it here, there are those who are going to make great battle or fight against some of us but six months after they start their attack, they will be dead. You remember that it has been so, that it was said so, for not only is it a time of division but its also a time of judgment. For you see, you are living in the last days, the end of the last days and the great harvest must be reaped and it shall be reaped, and conditions shall change concerning the Nation of Israel and that Nation will fulfill the prophecy spoken concerning it. And the church will be raptured.

Do not be misled by false prophets supposedly speaking even through the gift of prophecy by the Spirit of the Lord, but try the spirits and know, and know, for you shall know the truth and it shall set you free. And in the world there all be much tribulation and trouble and problems, but take heart and be full of cheer and not fear. For you are not in the world or of the world, though you live here you are in the Kingdom of God. And much light has been given and will be given. And the church, the Body of Christ, will rise up like a giant and take their place and do their part, and the harvest shall be reaped, and the husbandman shall come.

The end times - very, very crucial, critical years lay ahead of you. This decade will tell the story. There shall arise from your own midst, those empowered by the Spirit - qualified by months and even years of solid ministry, upon them the Spirit of God will come in a new way and they'll go forth and men will look at them and say, "is this the same person?" There are even those among you, among the maidens, young women, some who sit here, some of you have already known and had revelation in your heart concerning the future and not told anyone. Some of you men and women, young men and women in time of prayer, in times of waiting upon the Lord have seen into the future and in a spiritual vision, you've seen yourself preaching, teaching, ministering to the multitudes but you've been very humble about it and not told a soul. Some of you did not want it to come to pass. You wanted to go on living a natural life and having a fine marriage and everything is lovely and let me just teach a few. But you will have to go because the anointing will come upon you. Amen Go! - empowered by the Spirit. And other nations, in some areas, whole nations will be changed. Not that every individual will be saved but the course of whole nations will be changed. For this is the hour and the time for those that I've had hidden almost, and in preparation, it's the time for them to come forth. And there will be true prophets among you as well as in other camps that will not lift up themselves or desire that you 'look upon me or attract attention to me.' In fact, they'd rather not be seen. In fact, they'd rather minister in a different area, a different area of ministry in a different flow, a different stream. But they'll learn to flow in the stream that I've called them unto. And there are those that will have a very outstanding healing ministry. Many will have a healing ministry and every Believer can minister healing to the sick, but they will be specially anointed and gifts and manifestations of the Spirit will be manifested unto them and through them. And some who sit here will look upon them and will be jealous and say, "Lord, why couldn't you use me? You know, you know who I am." But you'll find that the Lord will put those folks on the shelf because that's unusable material. But those that are consecrated, those that are dedicated, and those that will put Jesus first - lift Him up, attract attention to the head of the church, and they'll declare even as Jesus did "my Father in me He doeth the works." And so we will declare "The Head of the church is doing the works; I'm not doing them. The Head of the church is doing the works." And we'll give the Head of the Church the honor; the place that He should have and has not had. And He'll manifest Himself and will draw men unto Him.

You sense in your spirit those who have and who do spend time waiting upon Me saith the Lord. Have sensed in your spirit, some have voiced it unto others. "Oh, oh, on the inside of me, I don't know what this is, but I just know the Lord is about to do something. He's about to do something great. I don't know what it is but my heart is so hungry. My spirit is so thirsty." "Ah," saith the Lord, those are the ones that I can use. Those are the ones that I can speak to. Those are the ones that I will call and separate unto the work whereunto I have called them. And so there will be an increase. Increase is the word. Increase is the word for this year and the next, and next and this decade and these years. Increase! Yes, the church and even yours, small as it may be at the moment, will increase in number but increase in power. Ministers will increase in boldness. Men and women of God will increase in manifestations and gifts of the Spirit. The power of God will increase in the Body of Christ and tremendous power will be made available. Great shall be the story thereof. Oh, if it could be told. If you could see it, you would have to shake your head in almost unbelief and say, "I just can't believe it." From the natural standpoint it is true, it would be difficult for you to do so. But from the spiritual standpoint, be humble enough to say, "Yes, Lord, yea, Lord, not me, not my name but you, and here am I. Send me - use me - mold me and make me and I'll go and I'll do what you want me to do. Though I wanted to walk another pathway, I want to chose my own way. I wanted to do what I wanted to do." Yes, you must be concerned about your family and must see to it that they are provided for, but by the same token you must carry out the ministry I have for you. Though there may be a sacrifice, you will be richly and greatly rewarded.

And so I looked and I saw two different roads, one road, yes that road is right in front of men and women of God who sit here tonight, that's the road you want to take. It's like a road with no hills just across the plains like a freeway. All can travel on that road and everything's rosy and nice. But then there's another road. It leads off to the right, goes to a valley, then up across a mountain, down into another valley, and after it goes to that valley for a while it climbs another mountain, but there is beautiful scenery on every side. "No. I don't want to take that road because I don't know where its going. I can see this other stretched out in front of me. I can see a ministry that is calm and blessed. We're well provided for, but if I go that way I can't see beyond that valley. I can't see beyond that mountain and I realize it looks rugged. It looks rugged, it looks difficult. I don't believe I want to take that road." But that's the road, saith the Lord, that you must choose. I'll furnish the power, the ability to get you over the mountain, and once you climb the mountain and get on the other side, oh your eyes will be so enlightened and you'll understand how to minister and operate in the power of the Spirit. The glory of the Lord shall come upon you, your strength shall be renewed and you'll walk in healing and health and will minister healing and health to others. Oh yea, Oh yea, Oh yea, Oh yes, yes and on foreign soil, I see whole cities that turn to the Lord, just simply because you preached deliverance to them and announced to them, "You're free, you're free, you're free, you're free - go tell the glad tidings to the destitute."

ADDITIONAL PROPHECY FROM BROTHER HAGIN AT CAMP MEETING '90

Every spirit that's of God will talk in line, will walk in line and act in line with the Word of God. For the Word has been given by the Spirit. And that which contradicts the Word of God is not of the Spirit. So one is at a disadvantage if one does not know the Word, or if the Word has not been taught or preached unto them, then truly they are spiritual children at a disadvantage. But be no longer spiritual babies or children carried about with every wind of doctrine whereby they lie in wait in cunning and craftiness to deceive you. Stand firm upon the Word, front of those with sound character, front of those who have proven themselves over the years as steadfast, front of those who are not filled with frivolity and foolishness, front of those who are true. For I say unto you, saith the Lord, that there are many false apostles and prophets in the land today. Those that would go about and call themselves apostles, they are not apostles. Do not honor them as apostles. Those who have a true bonafide ministry in this area will be recognized by the Body of Christ and they, the body will be the ones that will recognize and honor them. And those that call themselves apostles and say, "I am apostle so-and-so" or "I am prophet so-and-so." Don't you accept it for a moment, for they are false apostles and false prophets. Those who are truly called of me saith the Lord of Hosts will humble themselves before Me and will minister in the power of the Spirit and they will have a recognized ministry without putting any kind of name or tag on it and the church will be blessed. But you see those who come along and say, "I'm a prophet, you must listen to me. You must do what I tell you to do. Do what I told you to do. Follow me." No, they are not following the Lord, so you don't follow them. You follow the Lord and you will be blessed and your children will be blessed, and your home will be blessed and your household will be blessed and you will be a blessing to many. Follow that which is false and confusion will set in and the enemy will gain hold over you and over your children, and over your household and great will be the fall thereof. But walking in the light will dispel all darkness, fear will depart and the goodness of the Lord shall be thine. And thou shalt enjoy the blessings of your heavenly Father and you'll much cause for rejoicing. Hallelujah!

Campmeeting '90
Monday PM

Hebrews 12:2, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us...." That's a little bit blind to us, we are encompassed about. What Paul was doing was using an illustration from the Grecian games. Those folks running those races were encompassed about by those people, watching them. Notice this translation of the New Testament, modern language. Since we have a huge crowd of men of faith watching us from the grandstands, let us strip off anything that slows us down, or holds us back. Especially those sins that wrap themselves so tightly around our feet and trip us up, and let us run with patience the particular race that God has set before us.

Since we have such a huge crowd of men of faith watching us...I had to explain that to you cause when I was preaching there a while ago, I heard the head of the church, by the Holy Ghost, (that's the reason I jumped) say to me..."THEY'RE WATCHING YOU, THEY'RE WATCHING YOU, THEY'RE WATCHING YOU THEY'RE WATCHIN US, THEY'RE WATCHING US. AMEN, THEY'RE WATCHING US, THEY'RE WATCHING US. Hallelujah, now then, Paul's there with that company, the very fellow that wrote this, and he's watching us. And Peter's watching us, and James and John's a watching us. Hallelujah, Glory to God, Hallelujah! Let's lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily beset us, AND RUN WITH PATIENCE THE RACE. This translation says the particular race. See, each one of us have a particular race, that's set before us.

I remember one time, Ken was in high school in Canyonville Bible Academy. They were running, we went by to see them. He and Pat were both there. He was running track. Well, I never had much time, I'm out preaching all the time, but I went out to see him run. We was coming down there and I was real close there you know, and man, I just began to egg him on, just holler. Wave him on. Glory to God. He picked up steam, boy, amen. Hallelujah!

I HEARD THE HOLY GHOST SAY, THEY'RE WATCHING YOU! THEY'RE WATCHING US! THEY'RE WATCHING US, THEY'RE WATCHING US, THEY'RE WATCHING US. Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God! I just imagine old Paul's a watchin' us wondering when are they going to understand what I said to the Ephesians, what the Holy Ghost said, and rise up, GLORY TO GOD, AND DO THE WORKS OF JESUS. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Every head bowed, every eye closed, that's long enough. I can preach longer, but that's long enough. I've got a lot more to share with you tomorrow night.

THEY'RE WATCHING YOU! THEY'RE WATCHING YOU!

Loved ones and friends that have passed over to the other side. They're in that number... of the saints of the most high God. They're watching you tonight. In the Spirit realm, they're not watching you as you eat breakfast, they're not watching you as you drive down the freeway. BUT THEY ARE WATCHING YOU IN YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE, IN YOUR RACE. They know when you make a commitment to God. Heaven rejoices when a sinner repents. There's rejoicing in Heaven. Hallelujah! Since we have such a huge crowd of men of faith, and women of faith watching us from the grandstands.

Dear Father God, oh yes, oh yes, oh yes, my Father, FORGIVE US, FORGIVE US, FORGIVE US, OH FORGIVE US mmmmmmmmm... mmmmmmm... tongues...

For this is the day of new beginnings, many will renew themselves in the spirit. Many will renew themselves in the things of God. Many will call to remembrance the call of old, their commitment of yore and they will come back to that call, and to that commitment and make that commitment a renewed commitment. Some will turn away, taken up with the affairs of life, overcome with the cares of life. More concerned with the pleasures of this life, and will walk on. But those who examine themselves, and place themselves into my care and my keep says the Lord, THIS IS THE DAY OF NEW BEGINNINGS. The supernatural will begin to be made manifest in them. There are those that are in the ministry, truly called and fully equipped, but have not taken advantage of their equipment, have not walked in the revelation that shined upon their pathway. But they will make that commitment, AND THE LIGHT WILL SHINE, AND THE GLORY WILL COME, AND THE MANIFESTATION OF HIS POWER SHALL BE EVIDENT, till when they go back to their church, or when they go to minister, many will shake their head and say, is that the same person? THEY SPEAK WITH SUCH POWER, THEY SPEAK WITH SUCH AUTHORITY, AND THE HOLY GHOST WILL MANIFEST HIMSELF. AND WHERE THERE HAS BEEN A FEW HEALINGS THERE WILL BE MANY. AND WHERE THERE WAS A FEW FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT, THERE WILL BE MANY, AND INCREASE ON EVERY HAND, ON EVERY SIDE. Hallelujah, thank you, Lord Jesus, thank You, Lord Jesus, mmmmm... tongues....

And some here will remember the blessings, the power, the glory of yore. And they will shake their heads in bewilderment and say, "How far I have digressed from that call. Till the spirit does not manifest himself anymore. The Holy Ghost almost seems like a foreigner to me. And peace no longer abides within my spirit, and my mind is in turmoil and confusion round about me. But I will return to the light. Walking in the light of the Word. Walking in the light of what I know, walking in the light of what I know he said to me. AND THE FIRE SHALL BE REKINDLED... AND THE GLORY OF THE LORD SHALL BE SEEN UPON THEE, AND THE MANIFESTATION OF THE HOLY GHOST SHALL BE MANIFESTED THROUGH THEE. Many will have cause for rejoicing. FOR THOU SHALL BE BLESSED, THY FAMILY SHALL BE BLESSED, AND THY CHILDREN SHALL BE BLESSED, AND THY NEIGHBOR SHALL BE BLESSED, AND THOSE ALL AROUND THEE SHALL BE BLESSED, for a blessing shalt thou be. Hallelujah! But the word of the Lord came unto me further saying, but it is to be regretted that there are those that are so strong willed and so strong minded, until they push aside the wooings of the spirit of God, and walk on in their own ways. Some even in the ministry carry on their own program, for they have learned how to do things. But they are doing it in the energy of the flesh, and no reward will be given. And they themselves will wind up being a castaway, BUT THIS IS A TIME OF EXAMINATION. Do not examine your brother, do not examine your sister, do not examine your fellow man, do not examine your fellow pastor, or fellow evangelist, EXAMINE YOUR HEART. AND LAY ASIDE THE WEIGHT THAT DOTHS HINDER YOU... AND STRIP AWAY THE SINS THAT SO EASILY TRIP YOU UP, AND BEGIN ANEW TONIGHT. TO RUN THAT RACE... THAT PARTICULAR RACE THAT'S SET BEFORE YOU!

Oh yes, there are some here who are advanced in years. Some who have been in the ministry, and have almost quit. And have said to others... oh, I have retired. Yet, you have not finished the race that I have called you to. You haven't even finished the ministry that I gave you to do. If you will listen to me, I will renew your youth like the eagles. I will renew your strength. And you will stand again in the POWER of my spirit and might saith the Lord, and that will be fulfilled that I spoke to you several... Oh, a good great many years ago. Great many, good many years ago.

Oh yes, many have followed the letter of the law, but they have left the spirit. The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. Father, we wait before you. It is a solemn moment. Oh yes. Oh yes, oh yes, my my my my... Oh dear Father, that dear one, bless their darling heart. You were saying all the time, don't do that, don't make that move, in their spirit, yet in their flesh, they let their natural mind dominate them. They went right ahead, right ahead. Now they are reaping the results, and they are saying, "is there no hope for me?" Thank God there is. For he is full of mercy. His mercy endures forever. And he's able, and he will uphold them with the right hand of His righteousness. All you have to do is return unto me saith the Lord. All you have to do is just ask me. Ask of the Lord great and mighty things, and ye shall receive. Great shall be the restoration thereof.

ther, we wait, we wait, we wait.

And where there has been a few healings there will be many, and where there has been a few saved, there will be many. And where there was a few filled with the spirit, there will be many. And increase on every hand, on every side. Hallelujah! Thank you, Lord Jesus, thank you, Lord Jesus, mmmm.... (tongues).

And some here will remember the blessings, the power, the glory of yore. And they will shake their heads in bewilderment and say, how far I have digressed from that call. Till the spirit does not manifest himself anymore. The Holy Ghost almost seems like a foreigner to me. And peace no longer abides within my spirit, and my mind is in turmoil and confusion round about me. But I will return to the light. Walking in the light of the Word. Walking in the light of what I know, walking in the light of what I know he said to me. And the fire shall be rekindled...and the glory of the Lord shall be seen upon thee, and the manifestation of the Holy Ghost be manifested through thee. Many will have cause for rejoicing. For thou shall be blessed, thy family shall be blessed, and thy children shall be blessed, and thy neighbor shall be blessed, and those all around about thee shall be blessed, for a blessing shalt thou be. Hallelujah! But the word of the Lord came unto me further saying, but it is to be regretted that there are those that are so strong willed and so strong minded, until they push aside the wooings of the spirit ... God, and walk on in their own ways. Some even in the ministry, carry on their own program, for they have learned how to do things. Do not examine your brother, do not examine your sister, do not examine your fellow man, do not examine your fellow pastor, or fellow evangelist, examine your heart. And lay aside the weight that doth hinder you - and strip away the sins that so easily trip you up, and begin anew tonight, to run that race - that particular race that's set before you.

Oh yes, there are some here who are advanced in years. Some who have been in the ministry, and have almost quit. And have said to others, "Oh I have retired." Yet you have not finished the race that I have called you to. You haven't even finished the ministry that I gave you to do. If you will listen to me, I will renew your youth like the eagles. I will renew your strength. And you will stand again in the power of my spirit and might saith the Lord, and that will be fulfilled that I spoke to you several -- oh, a good great many number of years ago. Great many, good many years ago.

Oh yes, many have followed the letter of the law, but they have left the spirit. The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. Father, we wait before you. It is a solemn moment. Oh yes, Oh, yes, my my my my. Oh dear Father, that dear one, bless their darling heart. You were saying all the time, don't do that, don't make that move, in their spirit, yet in their flesh, they let their natural mind dominate them. They went right ahead, right ahead. Now they are reaping the results, and they are saying "is there no hope for me?" Thank God there is. For he is full of mercy. His mercy endures forever. And he's able, and He will uphold them with the right hand of His righteousness. All you have to do is return unto me saith the Lord. All you have to do is just ask me. Ask of the Lord great and mighty things, and ye shall receive. Great shall be the restoration thereof.

Father we wait. We wait. We wait.

That dear minister. That dear person is no longer in the ministry. They are no longer in the ministry. They have quit it. Show them right now that they may understand and know what you are saying to them. Dear Father, their mind is in such a fog. There is much confusion, darkness around about them. Their head seems to be in a cloud. But all the darkness will dissipate, and the cloud will flee away, if they only look on the inside of them, the Spirit of God will rise up in them, and give illumination to their minds, and direction to their spirit, and will help them in a rededication of their heart. Ya...Oh ya.

And that other person there, ya that person, I'll not, I'll not, we don't want to embarrass anyone, but that dear person, that dear woman, bless her darling heart, in the ministry with her husband. Yet she became jealous because God used him, and didn't use her that same way. And cantankerous, and a great hindrance to him. Now then she is running around trying to get healed of those headaches, just a chronic thing. And she is not gong to get healed til she corrects that situation. May the light shine in. She gets back, praise God in the race to stand beside of her husband, not go in front of him. Stand beside him, perform her duties, and those headaches will disappear, satan will have no inroads into her life. Ya that's right, we'll not embarrass her. Oh my, my my. Amen, yes she knows that, she knows that, it's up to her, I can't make the decision for her, no one else can, you can't even make it for her. But she can. May she purpose just now in her heart, oh thank God, yes she is, yes she is, The very light of God is permeating her whole being. Those headaches will disappear this very week and never come back. She will be glad, and we will rejoice with her.

Tongues -- for it is comely to praise the Lord, to lift up your voices in thanksgiving and praise to him, for he everyday is the same, for he never changes, yea, he will minister unto thee both today and tomorrow and the next day, he will minister unto thee each and everyday, for he is concerned about you, and he loves you with an eternal and everlasting love. Yea he careth for his own and he desires that you cast all your anxieties, cares and worries and concerns upon him for he cares about you affectionately and he cares about you watchfully, and he watches over his own. And so you lift your voice unto him in a song of praise, "I praise you, oh lord, I magnify your Name, Glory, Glory, Glory, for thou every day are the same. I will rejoice in him and I will be glad, even when circumstances and symptoms appear on the scene. Yet I will magnify his name, and they will all disappear and be as though they had never been. Yea, I will worship him, I'll lift my voice to him when I am alone, yea I will praise him in the night time and I'll praise him in the day time and he'll manifest himself to me and give illumination to my mind, and direction unto my spirit, so I will be glad and I will rejoice for the Lord is my helper and he is seated at the Father's right hand. And in his presence I stand clean and pure and Holy too, so I'll rejoice and I'll be glad for he has spoken unto me. Yea saith the Lord of hosts, be glad in thy heart, yea, let thy spirit rejoice, reach out toward me and I will respond unto you, and you need not have any fear, for fear is come like a dark cloud to overshadow your mind, fear has come from the enemy down here below, but yea, I have given you a spirit, the spirit not of heaviness, but of gladness and joy, not of fear, but of power and a sound mind, so that thou can rejoice and be glad and laugh in the face of fear. When the enemy comes with all of that, that would endeavor to defeat and cause you to turn and walk away. Yea, just stand your ground and rejoice and say "For the Lord is my helper and I'll not fear what man or any enemy shall do or endeavor to do to me, for I stand in him complete and whole for the Lord hath redeemed me, and unto him I will rejoice and unto the world and the enemy I will be bold to declare that he has accepted me into his fold. So the enemy has no place in me - spirit, soul, or body for I rejoice and am glad for the Lord has lifted me up and made me glad. (tongues) So stand your ground, refuse to be intimidated by the enemy all around, lift your voice with strength, the strength of the Lord and the power of his might. And speak to the enemy and let him know that you are not filled with fright but that your being is full of light, fear the knowledge of him, the eternal one who came long ago from Heaven above into the earth beneath and as a man took his place, and overcame that evil one. Yea, he arose that day victorious from the grave, victorious over hell and satan and sin and all that would deter or hold men captive, and he set the captives free. Yea, shout it out loud, I'm free, I'm free, yea shout it out loud with boldness, I'm free, the enemy has no place in me. So be gone and leave me alone, for I stand complete in the Holy One Yea, the Christ, the son of the living God, came and he defeated the enemy for me, so I'm not the defeated one. Yea, satan, the enemy, and all enemies that I may face, they are the defeated ones! I am the victorious one. Ha Ha, The victor who arose on that bright morn and declared "All power and authority has been given unto me in Heaven and earth, the victor abides within you, and that victory is yours today and yours tomorrow and yours the next day. So stand your ground and refuse to be intimidated, and all those symptoms will disappear and dissipate and the enemy will leave your mind. And you'll be clear and your entire being serene and fine.

Happy is he who has been saved and born from above. Happy is he who walks in the light of the Word. Happy is he who the Lord God has filled with his glory, his glory, and his goodness and has extended to him the hand of mercy. Happy is he who knows his place. Happy is he who takes his place. Happy is he who walks in the way of righteousness, happy is he who walks in the light of the word. Happy is he who runs the race. Happy is he who obtains the prize and gets the crown. Happy is he who all of his lifetime is filled with the glory and goodness of the eternal one. Happy is he who has turned from the world and sin and turned to the eternal God and walked in the light. Happy is he whose life is no longer ... with fear. Happy is he who no longer is directed, influence, or defeated, because of the elements and the things around about him, but happy is he who rises above the circumstances and the things which he sees and yea, he rejoices and is glad, and is ever ready to announce before the world. "I am his and he is mine, I am glad and I am happy all the time – Glorious, glorious, glorious is the church of the living God. Glorious is the church of the Lord Jesus Christ. Yea, for he is the one that doth cleanse it and sanctify it. Man looks upon others, he sees the physical faults, the physical shortcomings, and sometimes even the sins, and they go oh oh oh – the church needs cleansing. But remember the glorious revelation of the word that is given unto you, in the book of Hebrews, long ago where it says, "the spirits of just men made perfect." Never will the flesh of just men be made perfect. Never will the minds of just men be made perfect, unless they are renewed with the Word of God, for the glorious church without spot or wrinkle ha ha ha no, you'll not do it by your good works. You'll not do it by church regulations, do's and don'ts. But oh, its by yielding unto the eternal spirit of God, and letting him have his way in the inside in the inward man. So it is true and it is so, it is a glorious church without sport or wrinkle. Ha ha ha. Hallelujah, it's a glorious church. And if you see your friend along the way, and they stop you and say, "Where are you going?" You'll say, "I'm on my way." "On your way?," "Yes, I'm on my way. I'm on my way to the show. Because God has said that through the ages and the eons to come, he is going to put that glorious church on show or demonstration for all the ages and eons and eternity." (tongues) So you've got a right! You've got a right! You've got a right! You've got a right.

And it was plain too, because he said, "Tell the people not to send their money to T.V. evangelists and radio preachers. Support the local church first. Pay their tithes there. Some folks just send them everything they've got because they are begging for money. "Well, we're going off, we're getting desperate." You better get in on something you know is steady. You're going to be in some difficulty one of these days, and there is no need writing them and asking them to help, they aren't coming. They'll be writing dunning you for your pledge. We don't do that, you know that. Well, I said it. I didn't want to, but I did. What? All right Father. All right. If you want to say something else, it's fine with me. I've gotten beyond that particular point. Say it again. If you will say that again, we will endeavor to relate it to the people.

Every spirit that is of God will talk in line, walk in line, and act in line with the written word. For the Word has been given by the spirit, and that which contradicts the word is not of the spirit. So one is at a disadvantage if they do not know the word or the word has not been taught or preached unto them. Then truly they are spiritual children of disadvantage. But be no longer spiritual children or babies carried about by every wind of doctrine whereby they lie in wait in cunning craftiness to deceive you. Stand firm upon the Word. Follow those of sound character. Follow those who have proven themselves over the years as steadfast and true. Follow those who are not filled with frivolity and foolishness. Follow those who are true, for I say unto you, saith the Lord, that there are many false apostles and prophets loose in the land today. Those that go about and call themselves apostles. They are not apostles. Do not honor them as apostles. Those who have a true bonafide ministry in this area, will be recognized by the body of Christ and they, the body, will be the ones that will recognize them and honor them.

And those that call themselves apostles, and say, "I'm apostle so and so," or "I am prophet so and so" don't you accept it for a moment, for they are false apostles and false prophets. Those that are truly called of me, saith the Lord of Hosts, will humble themselves before me, and will minister in the power of the Spirit, and they will have a recognized ministry without putting any kind of a name or tag on it, and the church will be blessed. But you see, those that come along and say, "I am a prophet, you must listen to me, you must do what I tell you to do, do what I've told you to do, follow me." No, they are not following the Lord, so don't follow them. You follow the Lord, and you will be blessed and your children will be blessed, and your home will be blessed and your household will be blessed, and you will be a blessing to many. But follow that which is false, and confusion will set in, and the enemy will get in and gain control over you; and over your children and over your household, and great shall be the fall thereof. But walk ye in the light and it will dispel all darkness, and fear will depart and the goodness of the Lord shall be thine, and thou shall enjoy the blessing of your heavenly father and you will have much cause for rejoicing. Thank the Lord.

The day of blessing and favor and restoration has come saith the Lord of Hosts. The day of Christ has come. But also, the day of division has come. For there are those who will not submit unto the Word of God. For they go off after the doctrines of men and build strange doctrines on isolated texts. And make more out of one sentence in a verse, rather than accepting the whole word of God on a particular subject. There are those that will rise up and to defend themselves, they will fight others. Now you mark my word and listen and remember I heard it here; there are those that are going to make great, make great battle or fight against some of us, but six months after they start their attack, they will be dead. You remember, that it has been told and that it was said to you. For not only is this a time of division, but it is also a time of judgment. For you see, you are living in the last days, in the end of the last days; and the great harvest must be reaped and it shall be reaped, and conditions will change concerning the nation of Israel. And that nation will fulfill the prophecy spoken concerning them. And the church will be raptured. Do not be misled by false prophets, supposedly speaking through the gift of prophecy, by the spirit of the Lord. But try the spirits and know, and know, for ye shall know the truth and it shall set you free. And in the world, there shall be much tribulation and trouble and problems, but take heart, and be full of cheer and not fear, for you are not in the world, nor of the world. Though you live here, you are in the kingdom of God. And much light has been given and will be given. And the church, the Body of Christ, will rise up like a Giant and take their place and do their part, and the harvest shall be reaped, and the husbandman will come. It is the end time. Very, very, crucial, critical years lie ahead. This decade will tell the story.

There shall arise from your own midst those empowered by the Spirit. Qualified by months, and even years of solid ministry. Upon, whom the Spirit of God will come in a new way. They'll go forward, and men will look upon them and say, "Is this the same person?" There are even those among you among the maidens, young women, some who sit here. Some of you have already known and had revelation in your heart concerning the future, and you have not told anyone. Some of them both men and women, young men and young women, in times of prayer, in times of waiting on the Lord, have seen into the future and in a spiritual vision, you've seen yourself preaching, teaching, ministering to the multitudes. But you've been very humble about it and have not told a soul about it, some of you did not want it to come to pass. You wanted to go on living a natural life, and have everything go along and just teach a few. But you'll have to go. For the anointing will come upon you. Amen. Go empowered by the spirit and other nations, in some areas, whole nations will be changed not that every individual will be saved; but that the course of whole nations shall be changed. This is the hour, this is the time for those that I've had hidden almost, and in preparation. This is the time for them to come forth, and there will be true apostles even among you as well as in other camps. And there will be true prophets among you as well as in other camps, that will not lift up themselves or desire that you will look upon me and attract attention to me. In fact, they had rather not be seen, in fact, they would rather minister in a different area of ministry in a different flow and a different stream but they'll learn to flow in the stream that I've called them and there are those that will have a very outstanding healing ministry. Many have healing ministries, and every believer can minister healing to the sick; but they will be especially anointed, and gifts and manifestations of the spirit will be manifested unto them and through them. And some who sit here will look upon them and be jealous and say, "Lord, why couldn't you use me? You know, you know who I am." But you'll find that the Lord will put those folks on the shelf because that is unusable material. But those that are consecrated, those that are dedicated, and those that promote Jesus, lift Him up attract attention unto the Head of the Church and will declare even as Jesus did, my Father in me, he doeth the works. So we will declare the Head of the church is doing the works, I'm not. The Head of the church is doing the works. We'll give the Head of the church the honor and the place that he should have and has not had, and He'll manifest himself and will draw men unto him. You sense it in your spirit, those who have and will spend time waiting on me, saith the Lord, have sensed in your spirit and have voiced it to others. "Oh, oh, on the inside of me, I don't know what this is, but I just know the Lord is about to do something; he's about to do something great, I don't know what it is, but my heart is so hungry, my spirit is so thirsty." Ahhh, saith the Lord those are the ones that I can use. Those are the ones that I can speak through. Those are the ones that I will call and separate unto the work whereunto I have called them. And so there will be an increase.

Increase is the word, increase is the word, for this year and next and next and this decade and those years. Increase, yes churches even yours, small as it may be at the moment will not only increase in number, but will increase in power. Ministers will increase in boldness. Men and women of God will increase in manifestations of the gifts of the Spirit. The power of God will increase in the body of Christ and tremendous power will be made available. Great shall be the story thereof. Oh, if it could be told, if you could see it, you would have to shake your head in almost unbelief and say: "I just, I just, can't believe it." From the natural standpoint it's true it would be difficult for you to do so, but from the spiritual standpoint, be humble enough to say yes Lord yea Lord, not me, not my ministry, but you and your ministry. Here am I send me, use me, mold me, and make me, and I'll go and I'll do what you want me to do. Though I wanted to walk in another path, I wanted to choose my own way, I wanted to do what I wanted to do. Yes you must be concerned about your family, and must see to it that they are provided for, but by the same token, you must carry out the ministry that I have for you. Though there may be a sacrifice, you will be richly and greatly rewarded. And so, I looked and I saw two different roads. One road, yes, that road is right in front of you. Men and women of God who sit here tonight, that is the road you want to take. It's like a road with no hills, just across a plain, it's like a freeway, oh you could travel on that road and everything's rosy and nice, but then there is another road, it leads off to the right. It goes through a valley, then up across a mountain, then through another valley, and after it goes through that valley, it climbs another mountain with beautiful scenery on every side. No, I don't want to take that road, because I don't know where it is going. I can see those others stretched out in front of me. I can see a ministry that's calm, blessed, and we are well provided for. But if I go that way, I can't see beyond that valley, I can't see beyond that mountain top. And I realize that it looks rugged, that it looks difficult. I don't much believe I want to take that road. That's the road, saith the Lord that you are to choose. I'll furnish the power, the ability to get you over the mountain, and once you have climbed the mountain, and get on the other side; Ohhh, your eyes will be so enlightened, and you'll understand how to minister and operate in the power of the spirit and the glory of the lord shall come upon you, and your strength shall be renewed, and you shall walk in healing and health and minister healing and health to others. Oh yes, oh yes, oh yes, yes, and on foreign soil, I see whole cities that turn to the Lord, just because you preach deliverance to them. And announced to them, "You're free, you're free, you're free. You're free! Go tell the glad tidings to the destitute.

Father, thank you, I realize and know that that is not all that you are saying, but I realize and know that that is enough for now. Men and women have to take the first steps, before they can walk in the others. Just like those in the natural world, in school have to pass the first and second grade, before they get into the third. Too many have tried to jump over these steps and pass through these grades, they've not made a passing test yet. But this is the beginning. Hallelujah. Perhaps before this meeting is over, you'll let us share some of these other things. So, we will be pleased. If not, we're here not to please ourselves anyway, but to please you. I understand that. Whether or not we are able to share these other things, is what these do with what they have already heard.

Now everybody, this is a different kind of a service, but that's all right. Now everybody get off your chair and on your knees, all over this room, all over this room all over this room. Contingent, yes it is contingent. What happens next is contingent on what happens now. What happens next is contingent on what happens now. Lift your voice, lift your voice. Talk to God...

Yes, yes, yes yes, hallelujah (tongues). You'll have to, you'll have to -- make that consecration make that dedication to God right now. No! He's not through with you yet! He's not through with you yet! There's some older folks here that think he's through with you, but he's not through with you yet. There is work for you to do. There is a ministry for you to perform. Yes, there is a place for you to fill. You can be a greater blessing than you have been in all your life, in these latter years.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, (tongues). Yes the very life of God, the very life of God, the very life of God is going to be manifested through you. The very life of God, Ohhhh my, my, my ... yes, yes, yes yes (tongues). Blessed be the name of the Lord. Direction oh God, direction of God ... guide our spirits, that we may, that we may understand what you are saying to us here. Oh, that we will flow with you. Thank you, Lord Jesus, yes, yes, enlarge our vision, enlarge our vision, enlarge our vision. (tongues) Such a struggle, such a struggle and there doesn't have to be any struggle. There doesn't have to be any struggle. The reason there is a struggle there is because you want your way, you want to do it your way. You want to do it your way, you want to do what you want to do. You want to minister and go in the direction that you want to go, that's the reason it's a struggle. All you have to do is give up to the Lord. Amen, amen. Yea, but I want it like this. Well, but it can't be like this; it has to be the way God wants it. It has to be the way God wants it. Blessed be the holy name of the Lord. You've been going further away from the call, instead of towards it. Now, come back to me. Come back to me. Thank you, Lord Jesus, blessed by the Name of the Lord ... floundering ... I keep hearing that Word. I know he's talking about ministers just floundering, because you are not in the flow he wants you in. FLOUNDERING trying to find your place. Take time to wait. Take time to wait in his presence. Lay all your motives, and all of your attitudes and everything within you out on the altar before God and let him examine each one of them. Why do I want to do this? Why do I want to do that? Some of the rest of you, ministers I'm talking about, you have not seen the results that you think you ought to in fact, things don't seem to be going just the very best in your ministry, you've even thought about quitting and going in a different direction. But just ahead of you, you're almost there, just hold steady, just keep doing what you are doing, keep going to the people you have been going to, because right there in front of you there is a divine explosion. PRAISE GOD! You'll see more results than you have ever dreamed you will see FOR THE HARVEST IS COMING! And your part in it ... and it is not what you have done with what God has said to you, or is saying to you, it's what you do afterwards, it's what you do with it in other words. Amen.

For I know the Lord has spoken to me, for I know the Lord has spoken unto me. For I know the Lord has spoken unto me, for I know the Lord has spoken unto me. Yea, I know that Lord has spoken unto me. But what He said unto me has not come to pass. Yea, I see no fruits. Yea, the vision that He gave me, nothin has happened. Yea, saith the Lord of Hosts, "It is because you have not been in obedience and faithful." You're waiting, waiting, the Lord is going to do it. Yes, I know He is. But in the meantime, you be faithful. faithful to proclaim the Word of God. Faithful to preach the Word. Not searchin around and lookin to see how and what I can do to cause it to come to pass or to make it to come to pass. Because you can do neither one of the two. You cannot cause it to come to pass and you cannot make it come to pass. But it shall only come to pass as a crown of your faithfulness. As a crown of your commitment. So, stay steady. Don't be moved by every wind of doctrine that comes on the horizon at times. Stay steady. Stay steady. Just preach the Word. Just teach the Word. Just trust the Word. I'm trustin the Word to do the work, for the Word will produce results. so I'm trusting that Word. For trusting the Word is trusting God and surely He shall bring it to pass. Oh yes, yes, yes, you may weep. Weep - oh Lord, I know you told me to do this. I'm confident that You sent me here. Oh Lord, but I see no results. The harvest is so slim, so few, oh what am I to do? Oh, what am I to do? Yea, saith the lord, "Lay aside your tears. Lay aside your weeping. Quit feeling sorry for yourself. Just say, "I'm obeying the Lord. I'll trust the results with Him. My faith is in Him and in His Word, and I'll keep my word with You." And the anointing shall come upon you in a fresh way. Yea, thou shalt be anointed with fresh oil, and if you will, you will go from this place, and when you return to your place of labor and unto your pulpit, men and women will look upon you and say, "Is that the same person? Oh, they are so different." The anointing will lift you above the talents of your own individual flesh. It'll lift you into the realm of the Spirit. And so the Lord will accomplish that which He has witnessed unto your own heart, and that vision that He gave you shall come again into clear perspective and with rejoicing, you shall see it come to pass. And your heart shall be glad, and your spirit shall rejoice and all those round about you shall be blessed. Yea, thou shalt be blessed. They people shall be blessed. They congregation shall be blessed. And all those round about thee shall be blessed and those that call you "blessed" shall be blessed. For the blessing of the Lord doth rest upon you. Hallelujah!

Well, we're almost there. Not all of us. Not all of us. Some of us are. We're almost there. Some are holding back. Well, you can't expect God's best unless you give Him your best, so don't hold back, Praise God, just consecrate and dedicate yourself to God to go all the way. Hallelujah!

Quit questioning Him. "Oh, I've got so many questions. Why doesn't this work, why doesn't that work?" Quit questioning Him and say, "Here I am Lord. I just throw myself over on Your mercy. I trust in Your grace." And you will find that new mercy and grace will be granted unto you, and new vision will come to you. Hallelujah! And you'll not have to ask your next door neighbor, your friend, your neighbor-preacher, "Do you think I ought to do this? Do you think I ought to leave this church? Do you think I ought to do this? Do you think I ought to do that?" YOU'LL KNOW! You'll know in our own spirit. You'll know in your own heart, and you'll be able to say, "This is the way and I'll walk in it."

And I heard the Spirit of God say, "there are those ministers, ministers of the gospel present who have difficulty in your physical body. Who need healing in your body. This is the time of healing." Well, I've done everything I know to do, I've searched my heart, I've searched if there's anything wrong, I'm willing to make it right. Well, quit searching! Don't drag up something. Just rise up and walk up in the light. (I'm just quoting what I heard the Spirit of God say) just rise up and walk in the light of what you already know. As long as you stay in that slough of unbelief, questioning yourself, questioning your faith, wondering why -you opened the door for the enemy, and he'll surely defeat you. Amen. But trust Him. Because you see, He's faithful. And if there's something you should do, some place that you missed it, He'll show you. If He doesn't show you, then just rise up and laugh in the face of the devil and say, "I'm walking in the Light, I'm walking in His life. I'm walking in His strength, I'm walking in his healing. I'm walking in his health. And you'll find that your health shall spring forth speedily, and strength will come. Not only to your physical being but...(tongues)

Strength shall come to your inner man, and you'll be strengthened up above all of the natural. And glory to God. Glory to God. Shall take your place, seated with Him in the heavenlies. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Go ahead! Take your place! go ahead! Take your place! This is the end. This is the end. This is the end. End of physical disability. End of symptoms glory to God that have hounded you. Glory to God. Glory to God.

If you learn to follow the Spirit in all that you do, in your preaching, in your singing, in your worship, then the Spirit will lead you into the deep things of God. And yea, He'll manifest Himself in your midst, and you'll see things that your hearts have longed to see. Men endeavor to cause those things to come to pass by their own machinations and their own activity, but it shall only come as you give right place to the Spirit of God and to the Word of God and worship Him in Spirit and in truth. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying.

It's obeying the Lord. It's walking in the pathway of obedience that brings the blessing of God. for obedience is better than sacrifice. Not what I planned, not what man planned, not what somebody else planned, not accepting someone else's formula for success. For though it may look from the natural standpoint that folks are having success, if the Lord does not build the house, they labor in vain that build it. So get the mind of God for your own life. Get the mind of god for your own ministry. Yea, wait in His presence. Wait in his presence and lay on the altar all this desires of the flesh and ask yourself, "why do I want to do this? Am I doing this, am I following this pattern or that pattern because He said so or just because I want to? Am I in the ministry because I want to be there? Am I a pastor of this church because I want to be there, or is it because he wants me to be there?"

Get all of those desires sanctified. Present them unto God, then you'll find that you have desires from God. And into your spirit and into your heart there'll come a strength, there'll come a power, there'll come a peace that has never been there before. And there will come an anointing upon your life and upon your ministry that you've not before experienced. And it'll almost seem as though you're turned into another person, like it said of Saul of old, "Thou shalt have much cause for rejoicing." So look ye, believe ye and act ye, and so it shall surely be. Thank you Father, thank you Father, thank you Father.

Yes, Yes. It shall surely come to pass. It shall surely come to pass. It shall come to pass at last. Glory to God. Glory to God. Glory to God. Thank You, Lord Jesus. Well, let's wait a few moments. The Spirit of God's not quite through yet. Oh, hallelujah, thank You Lord Jesus.

Now, the Word of the Lord came unto me further saying, "There are some that because of excesses in some realms of so-called intercession and in prayer, have drawn back, and you're not praying like you used to. Well, just because some people got in the ditch on one side, no use you gettin' in the ditch on the other side." I'm repeating what the Holy Ghost is saying. "Come back up in the middle of the road. Flow again with the prayer life that you once flowed in. You'll find out that the Lord will speak to you like He has in times past. But so many times people will either get in the ditch on one side or the ditch on the other side at any and every thing that's goin'. And miss, very often the very rich blessings of the Lord. They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. Learn to wait upon Him, and you that are especially anointed to pray, give yourself to prayer like you did at one time."

or I know the Lord has spoken unto me, for I know the Lord has spoken unto me. For I know the Lord has spoken unto me, for I know the Lord has spoken unto me. Yea, I know the Lord has spoken unto me. But what He said unto me has not come to pass. Yea, I see no fruits. Yea, the vision that He gave me-nothin' has happened. Yea, saith the Lord of Hosts, "It is because you have not been in obedience and faithful." You're waiting, waiting, the Lord is going to do it. Yes, I know He is. But in the meantime, you be faithful. Faithful to proclaim the Word of God. Faithful to preach the Word. Not searchin' around and lookin' to see how and what I can do to cause it to come to pass or to make it to come to pass. Because you can do neither one of the two. You cannot cause it to come to pass and you cannot make it come to pass. But it shall only come to pass as a crown of your faithfulness. As a crown of your commitment. So, stay steady. Don't be moved by every wind of doctrine that comes on the horizon at times. Stay steady. Stay steady. Just preach the Word. Just teach the Word. Just trust the Word. I'm trusting the Word to do the work, for the Word will produce results. So I'm trusting that Word. For trusting the Word is trusting God and surely He shall bring it to pass. Oh yes, yes, yes, you may weep. Weep - oh Lord, I know You told me to do this. I'm confident that You sent me here. Oh Lord, but I see no results. The harvest is so slim, so few, oh what am I to do? Oh, what am I to do? Yea, saith the Lord, "Lay aside your tears. Lay aside your weeping. Quit feeling sorry for yourself. Just say, 'I'm obeying the Lord. I'll trust the results with Him. My faith is in Him and in His Word, and I'll keep my word with You.'" And the anointing shall come upon you in a fresh way. Yea, thou shalt be anointed with fresh oil, and if you will, you will go from this place, and when you return to your place of labor and unto your pulpit, men and women will look upon you and say, "Is that the same person? Oh, they are so different." The anointing will lift you above the talents of your own individual flesh. It'll lift you into the realm of the Spirit. And so the Lord will accomplish that which He doth so desire, and all that He has spoken unto you, and that which He has witnessed unto your own heart, and that vision that He gave you shall come again into clear perspective and with rejoicing, you shall see it come to pass. And your heart shall be glad, and your spirit shall rejoice and all those round about you shall be blessed. Yea, thou shalt be blessed. Thy family shall be blessed. Thy children shall be blessed. Thy people shall be blessed. Thy congregation shall be blessed. And all those round about thee shall be blessed and those that call you "blessed" shall be blessed. For the blessing of the Lord doth rest upon you. Hallelujah!

If you learn to follow the Spirit in all that you do, in your preaching, in your singing, in your worship, then the Spirit will lead you into the deep things of God. And yea, He'll manifest Himself in your midst, and you'll see things that your hearts have longed to see. Men endeavor to cause those things to come to pass by their own machinations and their own activity, but it shall only come as you give right place to the Spirit of God and to the Word of God and worship Him in Spirit and in truth. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying.

It's obeying the Lord. It's walking in the pathway of obedience that brings the blessing of God. For obedience is better than sacrifice. Not what I planned, not what man planned, not what somebody else planned, not accepting someone else's formula for success. For though it may look from the natural standpoint that folks are having success, if the Lord does not build the house, they labor in vain that build it. So get the mind of God for your own life. Get the mind of God for your own ministry. Yea, wait in His presence. Wait in His presence and lay on the altar all the desires of the flesh and ask yourself, "Why do I want to do this? Am I doing this, am I following this pattern or that pattern because He said so or just because I want to? Am I in the ministry because I want to be there? Am I a pastor of this church because I want to be there, or is it because He wants me to be there?"

Get all of those desires sanctified. Present them unto God, then you'll find that you have desires from God. And into your spirit and into your heart there'll come a strength, there'll come a power, there'll come a peace that has never been there before. And there will come an anointing upon your life and upon your ministry that you've not before experienced. And it'll almost seem as though you're turned into another person, like it said of Saul of old, "Thou shalt have much cause for rejoicing." So look ye, believe ye and act ye, and so it shall surely be. Thank You Father, Thank You Father, Thank You Father.

Well, we're almost there. Not all of us. Not all of us. Some of us are. We're almost there. Some are holding back. Well, you can't expect God's best unless you give Him your best, so don't hold back, Praise God, just consecrate and dedicate yourself to God to go all the way. Hallelujah!

Quit questioning Him. "Oh, I've got so many questions. Why doesn't this work, why doesn't that work?" Quit questioning Him and say, "Here I am Lord. I just throw myself over on Your mercy. I trust in Your grace." And you will find that new mercy and grace will be granted unto you, and new vision will come to you. Hallelujah! And you'll not have to ask your next door neighbor, your friend, your neighbor-preacher, "Do you think I ought to do this? Do you think I ought to leave this church? Do you think I ought to do this? Do you think I ought to do that?" YOU'LL KNOW! You'll know in your own spirit. You'll know in your own heart, and you'll be able to say, "This is the way and I'll walk in it."

And I heard the Spirit of God say, "There are those ministers, ministers of the gospel present who have difficulty in your physical body. Who need healing in your body. This is the time of healing." Well, I've done everything I know to do, I've searched my heart, I've searched if there's anything wrong, I'm willing to make it right. Well, quit searching! Don't drag up something. Just rise up and walk up in the light. (I'm just quoting what I heard the Spirit of God say) Just rise up and walk in the light of what you already know. As long as you stay in that slough of unbelief, questioning yourself, questioning your faith, wondering why- you opened the door for the enemy, and he'll surely defeat you. Amen. But trust Him. Because you see, He's faithful. And if there's something you should do, some place that you missed it, He'll show you. If He doesn't show you, then just rise up and laugh in the face of the devil and say, "I'm walking in the Light, I'm walking in His life. I'm walking in His strength, I'm walking in His healing. I'm walking in His health. And you'll find that your health shall spring forth speedily, and strength will come. Not only to your physical being but...(tongues)

Strength shall come to your inner man, and you'll be strengthened with might by and power by His Spirit in the inner man. And rise up above all of the natural. And glory to God. Glory to God. Shall take your place, seated with Him in the heavenlies. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Go ahead! Take your place! Go ahead! Take your place! This is the end. This is the end. This is the end. End of physical disability. End of symptoms glory to God that have hounded you. Glory to God. Glory to God.

Yes, yes, it shall surely come to pass. It shall surely come to pass. It shall come to pass at last. Glory to God. Glory to God. Glory to God. Thank you, Lord Jesus. Well, let's wait a few moments. The Spirit of God's not quite through yet. Oh, hallelujah, thank you Lord Jesus.

Now, the Word of the Lord came unto me further saying, "There are some that because of excesses in some realms of so-called intercession and in prayer, have drawn back, and you're not praying like you used to. Well, just because some people got in the ditch on one side, no use you gettin in the ditch on the other side." I'm repeating what the Holy Ghost is saying. "Come back up in the middle of the road. Flow again with the prayer life that you once flowed in. You'll find out that the Lord will speak to you like He has in times past. But so many times people will either get in the ditch on one side or the ditch on the other side at any and every thing that's goin. And miss, very often the very rich blessings of the Lord. They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. Learn to wait upon Him, and you that are especially anointed to pray, give yourself to prayer like you did at one time."

Introducing Spiritual Warfare

Ha Ha Mr. Devil. You thought that you had won. Ha ha, Mr. Devil, you're reduced to none. Ha ha, Mr. Devil, you thought that you had overcome. Ha ha, Mr. Devil, you have been overcome! Ha, Ha, Ha, I'm a victor through the Eternal One. Yea I speak and away you run. Yea, I walk and you clear out of the way. For you see, He in me doth dwell - the Holy One. And He rises up in my spirit and gives illumination to my mind, direction to my spirit, power to my hand and glory to my life. And so I walk, and so I run, and I'm not weary. I walk and I'm not faint. Yea, I put the devil on the run because you see, the Son is the same. Jesus Christ the Deliverer. Jesus Christ the same, yesterday, today, and forever, and He is the one that empowers His church. Everyone. And He's the One that empowers the least little member. Oh, I'm just the little finger, I'm just the little toe on the left foot. But the little toe on the left foot, the little finger on the right hand has the same power as all the rest of the body. And He empowers His Body. The Head of the Church operates through me and through you. Brings His will to pass and puts the devil on the run for he is a defeated foe.

There came One out from the presence of God long ago. One sent by the Father down here below. Yea, He came and ministered. He came and bled and died and He arose victorious that glad Easter morn and says unto you and me and the church today, "Low, all power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth. And the power on the earth, the authority on the earth, I delegated to you, My Body, the Church. Now go forth as a militant Body to undo the works of the devil. To set the captives free. To put the devil on the run, and tell everyone that Jesus Christ is the same - yesterday, today, and forever. Shout and dance and tell them what it's all about. For the Lord has won the victory." Hallelujah! So what remains for us but praise! Yea, praise Him in the morning, praise Him in the nighttime. Praise Him in the noon. Praise Him in the midst of tests, praise Him in the midst of fire, and you shall rise above the darkness of the enemy and all the machinations of Satan himself. And every trap that he will set. And you'll walk the pathway of God, and you'll walk the pathway of the Champion, because you see, there came out a champion from heaven long ago. And His name is Jesus. And He's the head, and you're the Body of Christ. So you're the champion!! Hallelujah, hallelujah! Glory to His holy name!

For He is the same, you see. He has not changed, for He is eternal. He never changes. He never changes. And so there is a work that shall be done. But Satan will cause people to stray off to the right or stray off to the left. And follow this fad and that fad. And the power is not released, and the glory is not manifested. But come down to earth, for if two of you shall agree on earth, on earth, on earth, on earth, as touching anything they ask, it shall be done for them by my Father which is in heaven. Come on back down on the earth, pick up the name, pick up the glory, pick up the power and run with the story. Hallelujah! Glory to His holy name forever! Glory to His holy name forever!

For out of this place; even from this meeting and from out of this place, there shall rise an army of believers that'll go forth with the power of His name. That'll go forth with the glory of Him Who is today the same. That'll go forth ordained, sent forth by Him. That'll do the works upon the earth that He declared would be done. And the will of God shall be accomplished and the cry shall go forth. "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh". So go ye out and do ye the work of the Lord, for the hand of the Lord is upon you for good and not for evil. Rejoice and be glad, for this is the hour, this is the time. The Lord had spoken. See to it that you walk with Him. See to it that you separate yourself from all the deeds of the flesh that would hold you back and cause you to stumble and fall. And rise up in glory and declare to one and all that He is the same today and demonstrate too and ye shall see the glory of the Lord upon you. Thank You, Father. Thank You, Father. My, my, my, my.

Plead the blood. It will cleanse you and you'll stand in His presence whole and holy. You'll stand in His presence clean. For He uses clean vessels. Vessels that are clean. Not that you can cleanse yourself. But O, His blood will cleanse you. Cleanse you, cleanse you. And you'll stand bold to proclaim His power and His glory.

The past is gone and should be forgotten. The enemy brings the past and causes you to remember the steps of failure and the way that was lost. Yea, even sins of the past. But remember that they do not exist. For they are gone. Hid in the sea of His forgetfulness. Now rise up in strength, and rise up in joy, and rise up in power, and run with the message, and run with the glory, and run with the name. For He is everyday the same. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Glory to God!

Every hindrance shall be removed, and those thoughts in your mind that have held you in this realm and in this clime, shall be erased by the Spirit of God, and the Word. For you see, you'll know the truth and the truth shall set you free. And so the Spirit shall take the Word and unveil it unto your heart, unto your spirit, and even illuminate your mind so that you can say, "All those things of the past are gone and forgotten. And I stand and I live and walk in a new clime." Yea, the glory of the Lord shall rest upon you from this time. And you shall walk and not be weary. Yea, you shall minister with strength and power, and many will turn and look in amazement and say, "Is that the same man? Is that the same woman?" For you see, you will be changed from this hour. And some will almost think and say, "He's changed into another man. She's changed into another woman." Because you see, as we walk with Him, we're changed from glory to glory. And His life and power and glory too is revealed in this very hour. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Thank You, Lord. Thank You, Lord.

Now because you've been faithful, because you've stood your ground, because you've refused to be moved by all of that that was going on around and held true to My Word, that will come to pass which I have spoken to you long long ago. The glory of the Lord will shine upon you and His power shall be revealed and many shall wonder, many shall see, and many shall be glad. And that that must come to pass in these last days. In the end time shall come on the scene, and the glory of the Lord shall also be seen. The power of the enemy will be at work. And the enemy shall laugh and scorn, but the work of God shall go forth. And that which shall be born of the Spirit of God will last and grow in intensity and power until He shall come in that glorious hour. So be glad and rejoice for the Lord has spoken and it is so. And all cannot be told you at this time, in this hour, but you shall surely see and shall remember that the Lord has spoken this very night. And to some of you He is speaking to YOU. And to some of you He is speaking to you concerning the future, and that for unto you are called. And some of you, He is rebuking. And be careful that he does not have to rebuke before all. But clear it up. Straighten it up. Clear it out. Walk with Me, and there'll be a great shout. A shout in the camp. A shout of His glory. A shout proclaiming His power. For the Lord is at work in this very hour. And ye shall see it from this time forth in a measure that you've not seen heretofore. And many shall come and shall walk with you, and the blessings of the Lord shall fall like rain from heaven and the dew. Many shall laugh and shall deride and say those things are past. They cannot be so. But in the midst of it all, triumphant glory shall prevail. For the Lord has a work that must be done, and you He can trust. So you shall prevail. Go forth in His name. Go forth in His power. Go forth in this hour for the glory rests upon you. And it shall be manifested through you, and that which He has spoken long ago, and you laid it on a shelf and you put it aside shall now come to the forefront. And you shall see that we in Him do abide, and His glory is the same. And His power revealed, and the mistakes and sins of the past are gone and forgotten and covered by the blood. So what remains for you but praise? What remains for you but to raise the banner high and proclaim that Jesus is the same - yesterday, today, and forever. And His glory too is manifested unto you. His glory too shall be manifested through you. And His glory too shall be manifested upon the earth in this hour and in this time, in a glorious manifestation that men have longed for. Yea, yea, the glory of the Lord shall even be seen upon you. Hallelujah! Thank You, Lord Jesus! Praise His holy name forever!

And there are those that walk in the realm of men. Walk according to their senses, and their human knowledge and thinking, saying, "God could not use that man. God could not use that woman. Because I remember when..." But remember, my dear friends, in the mind of God, the past is gone and is forgotten. The sins, the shortcomings, the faults and failures of humanity is covered by the blood, yea, even Him Who is called "Emmanuel." And His glory upon thee doth dwell. Now then, forgetting the past, and not allowing it to trouble your mind, but laying it aside like a man would pull off his coat and lay it to one side. Now, lay it aside and walk forth now in the glory of His power and might. Walk forth now in the power of His name and many shall look and even laugh and say, "He can't be the same. I don't understand." But yea, it's not necessary for man to understand. For the Father has a master plan. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Now go ahead and let him minister to your heart.

For you see, those things have held you back. O you wanted to move in the realm of the Spirit. You did to a certain degree. You did to a certain degree. But you haven't even gotten half way to where you should be. You have not moved out into the stream of His glory and the flow of His Spirit. Because the past keeps haunting you like a bad dream of yesterday. Now forget it all. Let your mind be renewed. And say, "The past is gone and it is forgotten. And now I stand clean and pure. Washed in His blood. Filled with His Spirit. And so I speak and I go and I do the work of Him Who has called me." For a quick work must be done. Yea, He's raising up an army today to go with His glory, with His power, with His Spirit. And so ye shall see and ye shall know and many of you who stand here now will look back to this place and this night and you'll say, "That's where it all began in my spirit, and now I go forth in His power and by His might." Hallelujah!

Changed. Changed. Changed. Yes, it shall almost seem as though you've changed into a different man. It shall almost seem as though you've changed into a different woman. You are changed into a different person. Because, you see, the Holy Spirit changes mankind. And we walk and we rise up and we go from glory to glory. Higher and higher. Ha, Ha, ha ha. And many shall look upon thee and say, "That's not the same man. That's not the same woman. I don't understand." But those who do know their God shall be strong and do exploits. And the power and the glory of the Holy One will rest upon you, and the power of God shall be seen upon you. And your face will even shine as the sun shines upon mankind. And the blessings of the Lord, even the divine out of you shall flow and bless men who live in this clime. And the glory of the Lord shall be manifested unto all so that they'll climb out of the depths of sin and despair and sickness and defeat. And they'll walk in the heavenly mountains of glory where His Son ever shines and where His glory is revealed. And where the winds of heaven blow. And the glory of the Lord ye do know. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Ha ha ha

And there'll be some who stand here tonight long ago, and you remember now when, as a child, you came to know Him - the Eternal One. And the glory of the Lord unto you was revealed. But you went your way and fulfilled your dream and fulfilled your vision and your life. But now you'll see, as you return unto Him the fulness of His glory unto you will come. And His power and His might upon you will rest. And men will look upon you and say, "Is that the same man? Is that the same woman?"

For you see, in this hour and in this day, the Lord will do a quick work for the time is short. The time is short. And already you see the shadows gathering on the horizon of time. And you see men, men everywhere, filled with fear and nations tremble. And men ask the question, "What is the answer? Where do we go from here?" But you see, my friend, the glory of the Lord upon thee doth rest. In the midst of turmoil and unrest you have peace and glory. And men shall look upon thee and say, "I want that same peace. I want that same serenity of heart. I want that peace of mind." And you'll be able to point them to the Prince of Peace. The glory of Him Who is sublime. And so the work of the Lord shall be wrought. And His work shall be done. And finally, He shall come. And we'll rise to meet Him with a shout. With the voice of the archangel and the trump of God. And the dead will give up the dead. The graves will give up the dead. The dead will give up those who dwell in the graves, and you and I which shall remain shall be caught up together and forever we'll be the same. Rejoice and be glad. For there is a work that must be done, and you have a part and you have a place. And don't you forget for you're running in a race. Amen. Amen. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying.

And it shall come to pass that which has been prophesied. That which has been said to me; what Jesus Himself said to me and to my mother before I was ever born, shall come to pass in these next few years, ere the year 2000 shall come.

And you shall see things come to pass that shall absolutely astound you.

Not things in the world that shocks them, that causes them to fear and to panic,

But things that shall come to pass in the realm of the true Church, the Spirit-filled, the Separated Ones shall come to pass.

Things that would absolutely shock you from the standpoint that it is so far out from what you even thought. The Word and the will of God will be wrought.

The Spirit of God shall be in manifestation. And the Glory of God shall be seen.

The hearts of men and women shall be turned toward the Lord.

And the God of Glory shall be manifested and He shall manifest Himself in the midst of His people.

Rejoice and be glad for it shall.....Hallelujah! Glory to God!

Tongues

And so there are those who will not go on with the Lord. Even as there have always been those that stood on the outskirts and criticized. And those who would not surrender themselves unto the Lord. But those who shall consecrate themselves, those that shall separate themselves, those that shall give themselves unto the Word, and give themselves unto the Spirit. Those are the ones that I will use, saith the Lord. That will spearhead a move of God, an army shall be raised up that will bring the Master back to earth. And the Glory of God will shine upon their faces, and the Power of God shall be manifested through them. And the power of God shall be manifested through their hands as they lay hands upon the sick and the gifts of the Spirit shall be in manifestation in their lives. And many shall laugh and they will say, "We have learned better. We have learned better." Aye, but saith the Lord, they have educated their head at the expense of their hearts.

But you, you that walk with Me, you that know the Lord will be strong and do exploits. The plan and the purpose of God will be consummated and My Spirit shall be poured out upon the earth. And there shall be a harvest. And My handmaidens as well as my son. (Sons?) My handmaidens you shall prophesy and they will be mightily used of the Lord.

And the Glory of the Lord shall be consummated. And in countries and in places that you are sure God would not move, and even in other religions, those that do not accept Christ, those that do not believe in the same God that you believe in. Even in those places, wherever I can find a hungry heart I will open their eyes, the eyes of their understanding, the eyes of their heart, and they will come and walk in the light. And they will come and walk with you and though that crowd out there on the outskirts, on the fringe will laugh...But they are only laughing at you, but yea saith the Lord, I will laugh with you. Thank you, Jesus.

. . . Blessed be God now and forevermore. Hallelujah! Praise God. Now we've come a long way and if we look back, it seems a long way. If you look to the future, in the natural, it doesn't look too good. Darkness on every side. Just blackness. Crime – the enemy at work.

But those who are true believers, and those who are called of God, and those who are anointed of the Spirit shall stand in these last days in the place that hitherto they've not stood. Oh yes, they stood in the edge. They had a measure of manifestation. But there shall come a full manifestation of special faith – working of miracles, gifts of healing.

For you see, those that need healing, healing will reach them. But so many even in the physical body need the working of miracles. They need a creative, something creative in them. Something restored that's missing. The working of miracles will work in that area as well as working in turning water into wine, or feeding 5,000 with a little boy's lunch.

So we came out of a place in the realm of the spirit that was blessed. Gifts of the spirit were in manifestation. The glory of God was seen. The glory was manifested everywhere. But then we've come to a place that was more narrow and there was a manifestation of the Spirit occasionally.

This '92, the year for you. Write it down. Don't forget it. Remember the Spirit spoke it. Not a man. '92 is . . . (tongues). . . There the desires of your heart will come to pass. They'll come individually, they'll come as a group, they'll come as a body – the body of Christ into a wide place.

Ha, ha, ha . . . (tongues)

Say it out loud – '92 is the year for you. Point to your neighbor. Say it out loud – '92 is the year for you.

Putting your own interpretation upon what God has said, or even sometimes sharing with others what God has actually said to you is almost like throwing jewels to the swine. So there's some things you do not share. But there's some things you do share.

Then there's times for the saints of God to stir themselves and to awaken for your redemption draweth nigh. It's time that the gifts of the Spirit in greater manifestation be manifested. The genuine manifestation of the Spirit. It's time that those that are called of God sent ones with a special message to the body of Christ come to the forefront.

Not those who call themselves Apostles. For those who call themselves apostles are not apostles. If they would humble themselves before me saith the Lord and just say, "I'm a voice crying in the wilderness. I'm a "sent one" by the Lord." And then not to ever attract attention unto themselves. But it's time that there arise genuine, not counterfeit, but genuine apostles.

It is time for some to move over into that realm who have ministered in other realms. It's time for those who are genuine prophets to come to the forefront. Not those who are counterfeit, or false. Remember, that it is written in the Holy Word, Paul himself speaks again and again about false apostles and false prophets. If there were false apostles and false prophets then, there will be false apostles and false prophets now. Those that have to call themselves apostles, the Spirit of God is saying are not apostles. Those who feel they have to call themselves prophets and go around calling themselves prophets are not prophets.

You remember it is said of John the Baptist. Jesus declared that no greater prophet has ever risen than John the Baptist and they asked, "Are you a prophet?" He said, "No." He took no glory unto himself. But attracted no attention unto himself. But it's time that the true ones arise in humility, not to attract men to follow them, but to call upon men and women to follow Christ. To lift Him up. For He said, "If I be lifted up, I'll draw all men unto myself."

It's time for the greater gifts of the Spirit. Not only the revelation gifts that have been manifested in a measure. The vocal gifts manifested in a greater measure, but the power gifts. Special faith. The working of miracles. Gifts of healings. And understand the gifts of healing is in the plural. There is more than one gift of healing. There are gifts of healing. Gifts of healings may be that different diseases. One gift would work on that disease. Another gift would work on the other disease. But right on the other hand, there is another side to the coin, so to speak. Some are gifted in a different measure and in a different way to minister healing. Some are gifted just to speak the Word. Some are gifted where by they tell people as you see in the Old Covenant to do certain things. And even Jesus Himself told people sometimes to do certain things. And they were healed. Others thru special manifestations of the laying on of hands. But a full operation, a full manifestation, not to bring glory unto man or that man would lift himself up but would rather hide himself and lift up Jesus.

And so we're in that day, in that hour and in that time and it's time for everyone to search their hearts. Search your own spirit. Oh, many would cry out, "Lord, use me. Lord, may I be gifted. Give me this gift or that gift." What is your motive? Is it just to attract attention unto yourself? Ahhh, prefer your brother or sister before you. Always seek that God would use the other person rather than you. Never lift up yourself and by so doing humbling yourself in His presence, then He'll be able to manifest Himself unto you and through you. And the anointing, the anointing in greater measure shall come. The anointing in greater measure shall be manifested. And the hearts of men will be glad, and . . . Hmmm . . . No, we must not go further. No, we must not. I'll not do that, Lord. No, I'll not say that. No. That wouldn't be wise. That'll take care of itself. It will be seen of man. And you'll get all the glory. We'll stand in our place. Hallelujah.

Yeah, thank you, Lord Jesus. Not only concerning me, but the Spirit of God said last night, He said it again to me just now and He said it not only applies to you, it applies to every Believer – '92 is the year for you! Say it out loud. '92 is the year for you! Say it again. '92 is the year for you. Now point to your neighbor. '92 is the year for you.

What do you mean, the year for you. I don't know everything it means. It may be the year for you to obtain to the full measure of God's blessing. It may be the year for you to receive complete and full deliverance. It may be the year for you to enter into ministry. It may be the year for you to enter into manifestation of gifts of the spirit. It may be the year for you to enlarge your tent. You know what I mean by that. Glory to God. Hallelujah. It may mean the year for greater blessings.

Well, you know God couldn't do much, you know, there's a recession on. Don't you know that? No, I didn't even know that. I saw a sign down in Winston Salem a billboard said, "We hear (this Sign Company had them all over town on the billboards) that a recession has come, but we've decided not to participate." Well, I heard about that but I've decided not to participate. Glory to God. This, oh man . . . (tongues) . . .

Yes, if you believe me saith the Lord, and even start rejoicing when you cannot see it, you'll find out your finances shall be increased. Your finances shall be increased. Your finances shall be increased to such an extent that you'll be able to jump and shout and say, "ha ha isn't this wonderful? Isn't this marvelous." And you'll be so glad and you shall rejoice and you'll be able to help others. And you'll be able to send the Word around the world. And the glory of God will be in manifestation, the power of God will fall upon you like rain from heaven. Hallelujah! Glory to God! Thank You, Lord Jesus.

All right, Lord. Praise God, we'll wait a few minutes before you. There's a little bit more there. We don't want to shut it off. These are not just meetings that we've planned. Holy Ghost and Healing – we put the healing on there because you have sent us, anointed us and sent us to minister to the sick. But these are also Holy Ghost meetings. Hallelujah. Oh yeah. And we let that get away from us. Say that to us again. Say that to us again. We'll deliver the message. Hallelujah. Oh yes, Oh yes. Oh yes, yes . . . (tongues) . . .

But to put natural things first, and even to put money first will only cause you to set your affections on things on the earth. Set your affection on things above, and in heaven, and you'll find that the things of earth shall all become yours. And you'll be able to walk in prosperity and blessing, but set your affections on those things and you'll miss the blessing. Set your affections on things above and let first things come first. Seek you first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all of these other things shall be added unto you. Hallelujah. Thank you Lord. Ummm. . .

The Word of the Lord came unto me further saying, many are poor and poverty stricken. Not because that is my will, not because that's the way I want it, but it's because that they themselves have not abided in my word and they've not walked according to the light of the Word. They did not put first things first. They did not seek me first. They did not pay their tithes or give, for you see, with what measure you give, it will be given to you. Many have given, many are very strict in their tithing and their giving, and in honoring me, but they are not good managers. They have mismanaged. Some have bought everything in sight. No. Don't mismanage what I've given unto you. But be a good steward and you shall be blessed in your doing. Amen? I said Amen.

Kenneth Hagin / Alvin, TX / January 31, 1993 PROPHECY

It is time that we become serious. It is time that things of God become sacred to us...and even a fear and awesomeness, a holy awesomeness will fall upon us. For God is at work in His Body, the Church. God's at work in the world and you've seen a few things and you've heard others tell of these things, but now you're entering into the Fullness. You've heard of things of old, but these were just the forerunner. Now you're entering into the Fullness and things that will happen will cause great fear to fall upon the Church and people out in the world even will be fearful of joining themselves to us but in true repentance, with a heart that's right toward God, great joy, great happiness, great and good life shall be yours.

Continue to walk in the way of the flesh, let your natural mind dominate you, put spiritual things second, material and natural things first and you'll reap corruption. But put spiritual things first, let your heart be right toward God and follow Him with a single mind and you'll find that the blessings of God you will find. Joy shall be yours sublime, great shall be His mercy manifested unto you. You shall proclaim his mercy and His goodness unto mankind.

You, (talking about us), are about to enter into the big things of God. Like the tourist that was going through the forest directed by the guide. He saw all these beautiful trees of various sizes. But they came to the giant Redwoods, "now", he said, "these are giants" – so you're about to enter into the field of giants in the realm of the spirit where the gifts of the spirit are in full manifestation, and the Glory of God will be seen by many, and the power of God will be in evidence, and the Spirit of God will be in demonstration, and your hearts will be glad and you'll find that many of those that you thought would never be touched, will be touched. For the power of God will cause them to turn toward the Lord. There are those that are so set in their religious traditions and ideas that they'll not be moved, but you'll walk on with the Lord and the blessing of God will flow, and the work of God will be consummated, and the will of God will be done, and the plan of God will be in force, and the goodness of God will be shown, and the end will come. And the son of man shall come even the Christ. Hallelujah, with a shout, Hallelujah, the voice of the Arch Angel, the trumpet, and it'll be written, the end.

Hallelujah!

There is a work that must be done. There is a harvest that must be won and we're in it.

Christ is the victor and so we walk in victory. Hallelujah! What remains for us but praise. What remains for us but praise. Yea, we lift our voice in praise and our voice in laughter, ha ha ha. Ha ha ha ha . . . and song and song and song and song. Our voice we lift in song, in praise, in laughter, in song the enemy is a defeated foe. Glory to God the way to victory we do know. The Glory of the Lord is manifest. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! And men and women are blessed.

Divine secrets. Sometime he, (the Holy Spirit), is talking to God about things God wants to accomplish. God don't want to talk it out here in this realm, because the devil can hear it, and he don't in that realm.

And His plan will be perfected and sometimes when you're praying that way you begin to see his plan; to understand it.

There is a realm in prayer, there is a realm in fellowshiping with the Father. There is a realm in talking with Him, speaking unto God, that we have only barely touched and so we just barely get results. But the time has come that we must teach prayer, both by precept and example. And then many will know that they were right all the time – they just didn't know how to enter in. But the way, to them, we do show and the mercy of God is manifested down here below, and the power of God in dynamic force becomes available, and into manifestation and the Glory of God will be seen in your midst and the Glory sometimes will be seen upon individuals for their face will shine as the face of an angel. And men will say that that didn't look like them. "Can that be them?" Because you see, all the work of God is wrought, consummated by and through His Spirit through the church which is His body. It's not consummated out here in the atmosphere. It's not manifested on cloud nine. It's manifested through his body. The head of the church does all of His work through His body. Make yourself available. Prepare your heart. Separate yourself from that which is unclean. Consecrate yourself unto Him. Dedicate yourself to do His will. Plan to succeed. Plan to enjoy victory. See yourself with those things that are necessary and they'll come into being. Many of you who are ministers will stand in a different office. Oh yeah, you'll still be in the same position, but he'll move the pastor sometimes over into the office of the prophet so that revelation will come clear and strong, and he'll speak as of the oracles of God, then he'll move back into his office as shepherd of the sheep. Some will be moved permanently into certain offices. Prepare your heart. Believe ye and ye shall see. That's what the Holy Ghost is saying.

Well we're there . . . we're not gonna get there . . . we're there!

Holy Ghost Meeting - Kansas City

A spirit of Knowing . . . a spirit of knowing. Which of course is the Holy Ghost, will come into manifestation in a greater measure. It was by the Spirit that Peter knew. Ananias and Sapphira had lied against the Holy Ghost, judgement fell upon them. A spirit of knowing will be in manifestation in the church in these last days in a greater measure than any of you have ever seen it before. A spirit of knowing. Hallelujah.

A spirit of seeing. Where the prophet in the old testament was called a seer because he would see and know things supernaturally. A spirit of seeing will be in manifestation in the church in these last days in a greater measure than you have seen here-to-for. You'll enter first of all into the knowing and then proceed into seeing. The days are upon us. For the last days are here and the work of God must be accomplished. The plan of God must be carried out. The truth of God must be made known. Hallelujah.

And it shall be. It shall be. It shall come to pass. That which your heart has hungered for. That for which some of you have earnestly sought. It shall come to pass. Right on the verge. Yes, we're in it, in a measure. But we're right on the verge of an outbreak of the Spirit and power of God. Of an outpouring of the Holy Ghost. Not seen by this generation. Right on the verge. And it shall surely come to pass. Say it with voice and heart. Say it with voice and heart. That is with your voice and let your heart agree with it. Say it, "it shall come to pass. It shall come to pass. It shall come to pass at last! No man can keep it from coming. No powers of hell, evil spirits of the devil can gain-say-it. It shall come to pass. Hallelujah!" Now put your hands up and thank him for it.

Thank you, thank you. thank you

Hagin Prophecy Hampton Meetings 1994

I heard the Spirit say, the Holy Spirit say, and He just repeats what He hears God say or Jesus say, for in the sixteenth chapter of John's Gospel, Jesus said "when He, the Spirit of truth is come, He'll not speak of Himself, but whatever He shall hear, that shall He speak." So I heard Him say, the Spirit say, because He heard either Jesus or the Father say: "I am preparing my people for that hour. I am preparing my people. This is a time of preparation. You are not there yet, but you are getting there and you will get there and so present yourself before me as a clean vessel, clean vessel, that I may use, that you may be blessed. Now evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceived in being deceived. At the same time that evil is on a rampage, and Satan goeth about as never before because he knows his time is short, yet I will do a quick work through my body, which is the church. And the anointing of God will rest upon you in a greater measure and the manifestations of the Holy Ghost will be made manifest unto thee, through thee and unto others. And the power of God shall fall like rain from Heaven. And a spirit of rejoicing shall envelope the people. And a spirit of joy will be common place among those who know Him, of those who fear Him, those who reverence Him, and the Glory of the Lord shall shine upon thee until thy very countenance shall shine with the Glory of God and many will look upon thee and say 'what meanest this? What meanest this?' And you will be able to guide them out of darkness into light." Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Thank you Lord Jesus! Praise your Holy name forever! Praise your Holy name forever! Amen!

The Word of the Lord came unto me further saying: "It is written as you read, and they, Peter and John, went unto their own company. I am preparing a company of believers. All do not desire these things. All do not have a desire to walk in the fullness, but, those who do desire to walk in the fullness of the Spirit and have the power of God in manifestation, in a greater measure than they have ever seen before, will be added to that company. And that company of believers, it shall be said of them, as it was the early church, they that have turned the world upside down are come hither also. For the ideas of men shall be turned upside down. For traditional thinking shall be turned upside down. For formal religion shall be turned upside down. And those who once knew the Lord and have grown cold, and some lukewarm shall be turned upside down. Ha Ha Ha Ha Ha! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! And it's happening even now. It's happening even now and it will grow in intensity. And it will grow bigger and larger and larger till the circle shall embrace, Hallelujah, those that are called. Great shall be the reward thereof, a spiritual rejoicing as you've never seen before will come into manifestation. Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

And - even some pastors who stand here, to their astonishment, a spirit of rejoice, it will break out in their church until they'll not even be able to stand to minister, but the power of God will fall like rain from heaven. Ha ha ha! And the joy of the Lord shall be your strength. And the work of God shall be accomplished. The plan of God shall be consummated and the glory of God shall be seen in greater and fuller manifestation."

Well that's what the Holy Ghost is saying! That's what the Holy Ghost is saying! Hallelujah!

Holy Ghost Meeting

Now give heed unto the words that are spoken and listen well and good for the Spirit is moving in this day, in this hour, and in this time. Yea He reveals things to come, He empowers his servants that they'll be enabled to speak with boldness by stretching forth His hand to heal, that signs and wonders will be wrought in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Holy Child Jesus, as the Word says and so take heed and listen to what the Spirit is saying to your Spirit for He speaks to your Spirit, He does not speak to your head, He does not dwell in your brain or in your head. He dwells in your heart, in your Spirit, and He speaks to your Spirit and what He said, Jesus himself declared that when He, the Spirit of Truth is come, He shall not speak of himself. So He, the Spirit of Truth, which is the Holy Ghost does not speak but He does not speak of Himself. Jesus went on to say whatsoever He shall hear, that shall he speak. So whatever the Father says, or whatever the Lord Jesus Christ says, then the Holy Ghost will repeat it. And that is the Father speaking. That is Jesus speaking and so He does speak. He speaks unto your Spirit. Ah, yes, and so many just keep their Spirit shut away, locked away, so to speak in a closet, locked away and do not listen. Yeah, saith the Lord of Hosts, Get your Spirit turned up. Get your Spirit keen and on edge. How do I do that? Someone asks. You do that by feeding your Spirit upon the Word. For the Word, the Word of God, is spirit food and so feed your Spirit upon the Word and then fellowship. Your Spirit with the Father of Spirits, Yeah, yeah. (Tongues)

For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men but unto God. For no man understandeth him. How be it in the Spirit He speaketh mysteries or he speaks divine secrets. So talk secrets with your Father. talk secrets. If I pray, Paul said in an unknown tongue, my Spirit prayeth but my understanding is unfruitful and so (tongues) oh, yes Father, I love you, I praise you, I worship you, I honor you, I listen to you. For Thou doest speak to my Spirit (tongues) Thou art the Father of my Spirit. I have been born again. The Word says thou art the Father of my Spirit. Thou art my very own father. I am thy very own child. Thy very own son. What would thou have me to do? What would thou have me to do? (tongues) My God, My Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, you sent Him to live, to die, and to be raised again that we might become your children. We're in your family. Thou art our Father. So we're out to obey thee. Now what you have seen tonight is only a little of that which is to come. Ah-ah-yes, yes, oh yes. yes, yes. My, my, my, my, (laughter) I wish I could tell them but I can't but oh, oh, oh, revelation will come. Revelation will come. For in this day and in this hour, the Spirit of knowing and the Spirit of seeing will come into manifestation. That is revelation gifts will come into manifestation not just all at once but gradually. Little by little as men and women, even laymen, obey the Spirit. The Spirit of knowing, the Spirit of seeing and you'll see into the realm of the Spirit and you'll see what God wants to do. Oh, oh, you'll be amazed. It'll awe you. It'll fill you with fear and trembling as you see this mighty power.

These are the days. This is the time. Do not say oh, Lord we pray that these things will come to pass. Say, oh Lord we thank you because these things are coming to pass. We thank you that we're alive and living in this day and in this hour and though darkness, darkness all around about you and in the world they'll grow more and more dark and darkness, wicked and wickedness, sin and sinful, but in the realm of the Spirit, the church will grow more and more spiritual, will grow more and more, will develop in power and in might, will rise up and shake herself like a giant, and declare the works of God are for us today and we will go forth to do the works for Jesus said "He that believeth on me the works that I do shall he do also." These are the beginnings. Let not your heart be troubled, neither be ye fearful from the natural standpoint and you'll be glad. You will be glad and if there be those who sit here, who have desired, oh have desired, and sought the Lord earnestly, nothing seemed to happen, but know this, your prayer is heard. The answer is yours. Declare it by faith. Rise up and stir up the gift that is in thee and exercise the gifts of the Spirit. They belong to you. They belong to the church. Have faith to reach out and take hold of them. And then there are those even in these circles that are not sure. Oh, they said I want to be sure. . . I don't know, their spirits are dull. Their spirits are almost we would say dumb. Revive your spirit. How? How? By waiting on Him until you are touched with a coal of fire off of the altar of God. Then you'll rise up like a flame of fire and go forth to proclaim the glorious news of revival, of renewal, of blessing, of power and might. The sick will be healed. The cripple will walk, the blind will see, the deaf will hear. Signs and wonders will be wrought by many of you down here. (Praise, laughter) Oh, my, my, yeah, Lord I wish I could tell them what I saw. No, no don't do it . OK.
